ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE AUSTRALIAN TAXATION OFFICE 1911–2010

Appendix

The first five annual reports to parliament were made by the Commissioner of Land Tax, and cover the period from 1911–1916. Subsequent reports to parliament were made by the Commissioner of Taxation. For many years, reports were known as the First (Second, Third, etc) Annual Report to Parliament by the Commissioner of Taxation (or Land tax, for the early ones). From 1985, the name changed to the Commissioner of Taxation Annual Report 1983–84 (or 1984–85, etc). Until the 34th report in 1954–55, reports did not appear every year, or included data from several years in one volume. This means that the annual report for 2009–10 is the 89th report, rather than number 99. A full list is provided below.
