Key criteria

We will consider expressions of interest with a focus on diversity across the group. Elements we will consider include an applicant's:

- ability to actively contribute to discussions, constructively challenge, and provide insights and suggestions that assist the ATO to improve the tax and superannuation systems, and the experience of the tax practitioner sector
- awareness of current and emerging issues impacting taxpayers and members of the tax profession
- strategic thinking, including an ability to see the big picture and take the long-term view
- personal professionalism, integrity, and ongoing commitment to best practice
- ability to find innovative and practical solutions, be open to ideas and engage with risk
- strong communication skills, particularly skills that foster discussion within a group that supports innovation and problem solving.
