

Revocation of agreement to comply with the private ancillary fund guidelines

WHEN TO USE THIS FORM

Under subsection 426-105(2) of schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953, you can revoke an agreement to comply with the private ancillary fund guidelines by sending us the revocation using this approved form.

You must complete this form if both of the following apply:

- you are a trustee of the trust
- you want to revoke an agreement made under subsection 426-105(1) of schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

COMPLETING THE FORM

- Download a copy of the form to your computer and check that you can save information in the form, or print it and complete a paper copy.
- If you cannot save a completed copy of this form, print a copy before closing the form.

Section A: Trust details

1 Trust's Australian business number (ABN)

2 Trust's legal name

3 Trustee's name

4 Director's name

Title: Mr Mrs Miss Ms Other

Family name

First given name

Other given names

5 Director's residential address

Suburb/town

State/territory

Postcode

6 Director's phone number (business hours)

Section B: Declaration

Privacy

Taxation law authorises the ATO to collect information and disclose it to other government agencies. We need this information to allow us to administer the ancillary fund provisions in the tax law. For information about your privacy go to ato.gov.au/privacy

The trustee declares that all the information provided in this revocation is true and correct.

The trustee revokes the agreement to comply with the rules in the private ancillary fund guidelines.

Signed on behalf of the trustee:

Director's signature

Date

Day / Month / Year
 / /

Lodging your revocation

Send your completed revocation to us by mail to:

Australian Taxation Office
PO Box 3000
PENRITH NSW 2740

Keep a copy for your records.