Repeal the paragraphs.

44 After Part VI

Insert:

Part VIA—Protections in relation to information

Division 1—Protection for whistleblowers

52A Disclosures qualifying for whistleblower protection

- (1) This section applies to a disclosure of information made by a person (the discloser) who is, in relation to a body corporate that is an ADI, an authorised NOHC or a subsidiary of an ADI or authorised NOHC, any of the following:
 - (a) an officer of the body corporate;
 - (b) an employee of the body corporate;
 - (c) a person who has a contract for the supply of services or goods to the body corporate;
 - (d) an employee of a person who has a contract for the supply of services or goods to the body corporate.
- (2) The disclosure of the information by the discloser qualifies for protection under this Division if:
 - (a) the disclosure is made to any of the following:
 - (i) APRA;
 - (ii) the auditor, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit, of the body corporate or a related body corporate;

- (iii) a director or senior manager of the body corporate or a related body corporate;
 - (iv) a person authorised by the body corporate to receive disclosures of the kind made; and
 - (b) the discloser informs the person to whom the disclosure is made of the discloser's name before making the disclosure; and
 - (c) both:
 - (i) the information concerns misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances, in relation to the body corporate; and
 - (ii) the discloser considers that the information may assist a person referred to in paragraph (a) to perform the person's functions or duties in relation to the body corporate or a related body corporate; and
 - (d) the discloser makes the disclosure in good faith.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a body corporate is a related body corporate of another body corporate if:
- (a) in the case of an ADI—the other body corporate is the authorised NOHC of the ADI or a subsidiary of the ADI or authorised NOHC; or
 - (b) in the case of an authorised NOHC of an ADI—the other body corporate is the ADI or a subsidiary of the ADI or authorised NOHC; or
 - (c) in the case of a subsidiary of an ADI or authorised NOHC—the other body corporate is the ADI, the authorised NOHC or another subsidiary of the ADI or authorised NOHC.
- (4) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

52B Whistleblower protection for disclosures that qualify

- (1) If a person makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division:
- (a) the person is not subject to any civil or criminal liability for making the disclosure; and
 - (b) no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against the person on the basis of the disclosure.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1):
 - (a) the person has qualified privilege in respect of the disclosure;
and
 - (b) a contract to which the person is a party must not be terminated on the basis that the disclosure constitutes a breach of the contract.
- (3) Without limiting paragraphs (1)(b) and (2)(b), if a court is satisfied that:
 - (a) a person (the employee) is employed in a particular position under a contract of employment with another person (the employer); and
 - (b) the employee makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division; and
 - (c) the employer purports to terminate the contract of employment on the basis of the disclosure;the court may order that the employee be reinstated in that position or a position at a comparable level.
- (4) If an individual makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Division, the information is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information.

52C Victimization of whistleblowers prohibited

Actually causing detriment to another person

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
 - (a) the person engages in conduct; and
 - (b) the person's conduct causes any detriment to another person;
and
 - (c) the person intends that his or her conduct cause detriment to the other person; and
 - (d) the person engages in his or her conduct because the other person made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threatening to cause detriment to another person

- (2) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person makes a threat to another person (the second person) to cause any detriment to the second person or to a third person; and
 - (b) the first person:
 - (i) intends the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; or
 - (ii) is reckless as to causing the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; and
 - (c) the first person makes the threat because a person:
 - (i) made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division; or
 - (ii) may make a disclosure that would qualify for protection under this Division.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threats

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a threat may be:
- (a) express or implied; or
 - (b) conditional or unconditional.
- (4) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (2), it is not necessary to prove that the person threatened actually feared that the threat would be carried out.

Definition

- (5) In this section:
- engage in conduct means:
- (a) do an act; or
 - (b) omit to do an act.

52D Right to compensation

If:

- (a) a person:
 - (i) commits an offence under subsection 52C(1) or (2); or

- (ii) commits an offence under Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code in relation to subsection 52C(1) or (2); and
- (b) another person suffers damage because of the conduct constituting the offence or because of the contravention;
the person is liable to compensate the other person for the damage.

52E Confidentiality requirement for company, company officers and employees and auditors

- (1) A person (the offender) commits an offence under this subsection if:
 - (a) a person (the discloser) makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Division; and
 - (b) the disclosure is made to:
 - (i) the auditor of, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit of, the body corporate or a related body corporate within the meaning of subsection 52A(3); or
 - (ii) a director or senior manager of the body corporate or a related body corporate within the meaning of subsection 52A(3); or
 - (iii) a person authorised by the body corporate to receive disclosures of that kind; and
 - (c) the offender is:
 - (i) the auditor, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit, of the body corporate or a related body corporate; or
 - (ii) a director or senior manager of the body corporate or a related body corporate; or
 - (iii) a person authorised by the body corporate to receive disclosures of that kind; or
 - (iv) the body corporate or a related body corporate; or
 - (v) an officer or employee of the body corporate or a related body corporate; and
 - (d) the offender discloses any of the following information (the confidential information):
 - (i) the information referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (ii) the identity of the discloser;
 - (iii) information that is likely to lead to the identification of the discloser; and

- (e) the confidential information is information that the offender obtained directly or indirectly because of the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (f) either:
 - (i) the offender is the person to whom the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a) is made; or
 - (ii) the offender is a person to whom the confidential information is disclosed in contravention of this section and the offender knows that the disclosure of the confidential information to the offender was unlawful or made in breach of confidence; and
- (g) the disclosure referred to in paragraph (d) is not authorised under subsection (2).

Penalty: 25 penalty units.

- (2) The disclosure referred to in paragraph (1)(d) is authorised under this subsection if:
 - (a) it is made to APRA; or
 - (b) it is made to a member of the Australian Federal Police (within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979); or
 - (c) it is made to someone else with the consent of the discloser.
- (3) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

Division 2—Self-incrimination

52F Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from complying with a requirement under this Act or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 to give information to APRA on the ground that doing so would tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.
- (2) However, if the person is an individual, the information given by the individual in compliance with the requirement is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information, if:

- (a) before giving the information, the individual claims that giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty; and
- (b) giving the information might in fact tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty.

45 Subparagraph 61(3)(b)(ii)

Omit “facilities; and”, substitute “facilities.”.

46 Paragraph 61(3)(c)

Repeal the paragraph.

47 Subsection 61(4)

Corporations Act 2001

52 Before subsection 1274(3)

Insert:

- (2D) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (5), each of the following is taken to be a document lodged with ASIC if a copy has been given to ASIC by APRA:
 - (a) benefit fund rules that have been approved by APRA under section 16L of the Life Insurance Act 1995;

- (b) an amendment of benefit fund rules that has been approved by APRA under section 16Q of the Life Insurance Act 1995;
- (c) consequential amendments of a company's constitution that have been approved by APRA under section 16U or 16V of the Life Insurance Act 1995.

Insurance Act 1973

53 Subsection 7(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) APRA may, in writing, determine that any or all of the following provisions of this Act do not apply to a person while the determination is in force:
 - (a) a provision of Part III (other than a provision of Division 3A of that Part);
 - (b) section 35;
 - (c) section 39;
 - (d) section 41;
 - (e) a provision of Division 3 or 4 of Part IV;
 - (f) section 49Q;
 - (g) section 117;
 - (h) section 118;
 - (i) section 120;
 - (j) section 121.

54 After subsection 7(2)

Insert:

- (2A) If APRA makes a determination that applies to a particular person, APRA must also give the person written notice of the determination.

55 Subsections 7(3) and (4)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

- (3) APRA may, in writing, vary or revoke a determination under this section.

- (4) The following instruments made under this section are not legislative instruments:
 - (a) a determination that applies to a particular person;
 - (b) an instrument varying or revoking a determination that applies to a particular person.
- (5) Otherwise, an instrument made under this section is a legislative instrument.

56 At the end of subsection 32(1)

Add:

- ; or (e) one or more specified general insurers, authorised NOHCs or subsidiaries of general insurers or authorised NOHCs.

57 Paragraph 32(3D)(b)

Omit “NOHCs;”, substitute “NOHCs.”.

58 Paragraph 32(3D)(c)

Repeal the paragraph.

59 Subsections 32(4), (4A) and (5)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

- (4) APRA may, in writing, vary or revoke a standard. However, APRA must not, under this subsection, vary or revoke a standard in a way described in subsection (3A).
- (4A) A standard referred to in paragraph (1)(e), or an instrument varying or revoking such a standard, has effect:
 - (a) from the day on which the standard, variation or revocation is made; or
 - (b) if the standard, variation or revocation specifies a later day— from that later day.
- (5) The following instruments made under this section are not legislative instruments:
 - (a) a standard referred to in paragraph (1)(e);
 - (b) an instrument varying or revoking a standard referred to in paragraph (1)(e);
 - (c) a modification of a standard under subsection (3A);

(d) an instrument varying or revoking a modification under subsection (3A).

(5A) Otherwise, an instrument made under this section is a legislative instrument.

60 Subsection 32(6)

Omit “section 49A”, substitute “section 14 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 and section 46AA”.

61 Section 33

Repeal the section.

62 At the end of Part IIIA

Add:

Division 4—Protections in relation to information

Subdivision A—Protection for whistleblowers

38A Disclosures qualifying for whistleblower protection

- (1) This section applies to a disclosure of information made by a person (the discloser) who is, in relation to a body corporate that is a general insurer, an authorised NOHC or a subsidiary of a general insurer or authorised NOHC, any of the following:
 - (a) an officer of the body corporate;
 - (b) an employee of the body corporate;
 - (c) a person who has a contract for the supply of services or goods to the body corporate;
 - (d) an employee of a person who has a contract for the supply of services or goods to the body corporate.
- (2) The disclosure of information by the discloser qualifies for protection under this Subdivision if:
 - (a) the disclosure is made to any of the following:
 - (i) APRA;
 - (ii) the auditor, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit, of the body corporate or a related body corporate;

- (iii) the actuary of the body corporate or a related body corporate;
 - (iv) a director or senior manager of the body corporate or a related body corporate;
 - (v) a person authorised by the body corporate to receive disclosures of the kind made; and
- (b) the discloser informs the person to whom the disclosure is made of the discloser's name before making the disclosure; and
- (c) both:
- (i) the information concerns misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances, in relation to the body corporate or a related body corporate; and
 - (ii) the discloser considers that the information may assist a person referred to in paragraph (a) to perform the person's functions or duties in relation to the body corporate or a related body corporate; and
- (d) the discloser makes the disclosure in good faith.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a body corporate is a related body corporate of another body corporate if:
- (a) in the case of a general insurer—the other body corporate is the authorised NOHC of the general insurer or a subsidiary of the general insurer or authorised NOHC; or
 - (b) in the case of an authorised NOHC of a general insurer—the other body corporate is the general insurer or a subsidiary of the general insurer or authorised NOHC; or
 - (c) in the case of a subsidiary of a general insurer or authorised NOHC—the other body corporate is the general insurer, the authorised NOHC or another subsidiary of the general insurer or authorised NOHC.
- (4) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

38B Whistleblower protection for disclosures that qualify

- (1) If a person makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision:
- (a) the person is not subject to any civil or criminal liability for making the disclosure; and

- (b) no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against the person on the basis of the disclosure.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1):
 - (a) the person has qualified privilege in respect of the disclosure; and
 - (b) a contract to which the person is a party must not be terminated on the basis that the disclosure constitutes a breach of the contract.
- (3) Without limiting paragraphs (1)(b) and (2)(b), if a court is satisfied that:
 - (a) a person (the employee) is employed in a particular position under a contract of employment with another person (the employer); and
 - (b) the employee makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision; and
 - (c) the employer purports to terminate the contract of employment on the basis of the disclosure;the court may order that the employee be reinstated in that position or a position at a comparable level.
- (4) If an individual makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision, the information is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information.

38C Victimization of whistleblowers prohibited

Actually causing detriment to another person

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
 - (a) the person engages in conduct; and
 - (b) the person's conduct causes any detriment to another person; and
 - (c) the person intends that his or her conduct cause detriment to the other person; and

- (d) the person engages in his or her conduct because the other person made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threatening to cause detriment to another person

- (2) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
 - (a) the first person makes a threat to another person (the second person) to cause any detriment to the second person or to a third person; and
 - (b) the first person:
 - (i) intends the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; or
 - (ii) is reckless as to causing the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; and
 - (c) the first person makes the threat because a person:
 - (i) made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision; or
 - (ii) may make a disclosure that would qualify for protection under this Subdivision.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threats

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a threat may be:
 - (a) express or implied; or
 - (b) conditional or unconditional.
- (4) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (2), it is not necessary to prove that the person threatened actually feared that the threat would be carried out.

Definition

- (5) In this section:
 - engage in conduct means:
 - (a) do an act; or
 - (b) omit to do an act.

38D Right to compensation

If:

- (a) a person:
 - (i) commits an offence under subsection 38C(1) or (2); or
 - (ii) commits an offence under Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code in relation to subsection 38C(1) or (2); and
- (b) another person suffers damage because of the conduct constituting the offence or because of the contravention;
the person is liable to compensate the other person for the damage.

38E Confidentiality requirement for company, company officers and employees and auditors

- (1) A person (the offender) commits an offence under this subsection if:
 - (a) a person (the discloser) makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision; and
 - (b) the disclosure is made to:
 - (i) the auditor, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit, of the body corporate or a related body corporate in within the meaning of subsection 38A(3); or
 - (ii) a director or senior manager of the body corporate or a related body corporate; or
 - (iii) a person authorised by the body corporate to receive disclosures of that kind; and
 - (c) the offender is:
 - (i) the auditor, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit, of the body corporate or a related body corporate; or
 - (ii) a director or senior manager of the body corporate or a related body corporate; or
 - (iii) a person authorised by the body corporate to receive disclosures of that kind; or
 - (iv) the body corporate or a related body corporate; or
 - (v) an officer or employee of the body corporate or a related body corporate; and
 - (d) the offender discloses any of the following information (the confidential information):

- (i) the information referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (ii) the identity of the discloser;
 - (iii) information that is likely to lead to the identification of the discloser; and
- (e) the confidential information is information that the offender obtained directly or indirectly because of the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (f) either:
- (i) the offender is the person to whom the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a) is made; or
 - (ii) the offender is a person to whom the confidential information is disclosed in contravention of this section and the offender knows that the disclosure of the confidential information to the offender was unlawful or made in breach of confidence; and
- (g) the disclosure referred to in paragraph (d) is not authorised under subsection (2).

Penalty: 25 penalty units.

- (2) The disclosure referred to in paragraph (1)(d) is authorised under this subsection if:
- (a) it is made to APRA; or
 - (b) it is made to a member of the Australian Federal Police (within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979); or
 - (c) it is made to someone else with the consent of the discloser.
- (3) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

Subdivision B—Self-incrimination

38F Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from complying with a requirement under this Act, the prudential standards or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 to give information to APRA on the ground that doing so would tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

- (2) However, if the person is an individual, the information given by the individual in compliance with the requirement is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information, if:
- (a) before giving the information, the individual claims that giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty; and
 - (b) giving the information might in fact tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty.

48 Referring matters to professional associations for auditors and actuaries

- (1) If APRA is of the opinion that an auditor of a general insurer:
- (a) has failed, whether within or outside Australia, to perform adequately and properly his or her duties or functions as an auditor under:
 - (i) this Act, the regulations or the prudential standards; or
 - (ii) any other law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
 - (b) is otherwise not a fit and proper person to be the auditor of a general insurer;
- APRA may refer the details of the matter to either or both of the following:
- (c) the Companies Auditors and Liquidators Disciplinary Board established by Division 1 of Part 11 of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001;
 - (d) those members of the professional association of the auditor whom APRA believes will be involved in considering or taking any disciplinary or other action concerning the matter against the auditor.
- (2) If APRA is of the opinion that an actuary of a general insurer:

- (a) has failed, whether within or outside Australia, to perform adequately and properly his or her duties as an actuary under:
 - (i) this Act, the regulations or the prudential standards; or
 - (ii) any other law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
- (b) is otherwise not a fit and proper person to be the actuary of a general insurer;

APRA may refer the details of the matter to those members of the professional association of the actuary whom APRA believes will be involved in considering or taking any disciplinary or other action concerning the matter against the actuary.

- (3) If APRA refers details of a matter under this section, APRA must also give written notice of the referral (including the nature of the matter) to the auditor or actuary.
- (4) APRA's powers under subsection (1) and (2) may be exercised whether or not APRA has disqualified the person under section 44.

Division 5—Protections in relation to information

Subdivision A—Protection for whistleblowers

156A Disclosures qualifying for whistleblower protection

- (1) This section applies to a disclosure of information by a person (the discloser) who is, in relation to a life company, any of the following:
 - (a) an officer of the life company;
 - (b) an employee of the life company;
 - (c) a person who has a contract for the supply of services or goods to the life company;
 - (d) an employee of a person who has a contract for the supply of services or goods to the life company.
- (2) The disclosure of information by the discloser qualifies for protection under this Subdivision if:
 - (a) the disclosure is made to any of the following:
 - (i) APRA;
 - (ii) the life company's auditor or a member of an audit team conducting an audit of the life company;
 - (iii) the appointed actuary of the life company;
 - (iv) a director or senior manager of the life company;
 - (v) a person authorised by the life company to receive disclosures of the kind made; and
 - (b) the discloser informs the person to whom the disclosure is made of the discloser's name before making the disclosure; and
 - (c) both:
 - (i) the information concerns misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances, in relation to the life company; and

- (ii) the discloser considers that the information may assist a person referred to in paragraph (a) to perform the person's functions or duties in relation to the life company; and
 - (d) the discloser makes the disclosure in good faith.
- (3) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

156B Whistleblower protection for disclosures that qualify

- (1) If a person makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision:
- (a) the person is not subject to any civil or criminal liability for making the disclosure; and
 - (b) no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against the person on the basis of the disclosure.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1):
- (a) the person has qualified privilege in respect of the disclosure; and
 - (b) a contract to which the person is a party must not be terminated on the basis that the disclosure constitutes a breach of the contract.
- (3) Without limiting paragraphs (1)(b) and (2)(b), if a court is satisfied that:
- (a) a person (the employee) is employed in a particular position under a contract of employment with another person (the employer); and
 - (b) the employee makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision; and
 - (c) the employer purports to terminate the contract of employment on the basis of the disclosure;
- the court may order that the employee be reinstated in that position or a position at a comparable level.
- (4) If an individual makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision, the information is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information.

156C Victimization of whistleblowers prohibited

Actually causing detriment to another person

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person engages in conduct; and
 - (b) the person's conduct causes any detriment to another person; and
 - (c) the person intends that his or her conduct cause detriment to the other person; and
 - (d) the person engages in his or her conduct because the other person made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threatening to cause detriment to another person

- (2) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person makes a threat to another person (the second person) to cause any detriment to the second person or to a third person; and
 - (b) the first person:
 - (i) intends the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; or
 - (ii) is reckless as to causing the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; and
 - (c) the first person makes the threat because a person:
 - (i) made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision; or
 - (ii) may make a disclosure that would qualify for protection under this Subdivision.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threats

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a threat may be:

- (a) express or implied; or
 - (b) conditional or unconditional.
- (4) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (2), it is not necessary to prove that the person threatened actually feared that the threat would be carried out.

Definition

- (5) In this section:
- engage in conduct means:
- (a) do an act; or
 - (b) omit to do an act.

156D Right to compensation

If:

- (a) a person:
 - (i) commits an offence under subsection 156C(1) or (2); or
 - (ii) commits an offence under Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code in relation to subsection 156C(1) or (2); and
 - (b) another person suffers damage because of the conduct constituting the offence or because of the contravention;
- the person is liable to compensate the other person for the damage.

156E Confidentiality requirement for company, company officers and employees and auditors

- (1) A person (the offender) commits an offence under this subsection if:
- (a) a person (the discloser) makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Subdivision; and
 - (b) the disclosure is made to:
 - (i) the life company's auditor or a member of an audit team conducting an audit of the life company; or
 - (ii) a director or senior manager of the life company; or
 - (iii) a person authorised by the life company to receive disclosures of that kind; and
 - (c) the offender is:

- (i) the life company's auditor or a member of an audit team conducting an audit of the life company; or
 - (ii) a director or senior manager of the life company; or
 - (iii) a person authorised by the life company to receive disclosures of that kind; or
 - (iv) the life company; or
 - (v) an officer or employee of the life company; and
- (d) the offender discloses any of the following information (the confidential information):
- (i) the information referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (ii) the identity of the discloser;
 - (iii) information that is likely to lead to the identification of the discloser; and
- (e) the confidential information is information that the offender obtained directly or indirectly because of the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (f) either:
- (i) the offender is the person to whom the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a) is made; or
 - (ii) the offender is a person to whom the confidential information is disclosed in contravention of this section and the offender knows that the disclosure of the confidential information to the offender was unlawful or made in breach of confidence; and
- (g) the disclosure referred to in paragraph (d) is not authorised under subsection (2).

Penalty: 25 penalty units.

- (2) The disclosure referred to in paragraph (1)(d) is authorised under this subsection if:
- (a) it is made to APRA; or
 - (b) it is made to a member of the Australian Federal Police (within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979); or
 - (c) it is made to someone else with the consent of the discloser.
- (3) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

Subdivision B—Self-incrimination

156F Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from complying with a requirement under this Act or under the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 to give information to APRA on the ground that doing so would tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.
- (2) However, if the person is an individual, the information given by the individual in compliance with the requirement is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information, if:
 - (a) before giving the information, the individual claims that giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty; and
 - (b) giving the information might in fact tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty.

Part 29A—Protections in relation to information

Division 1—Protection for whistleblowers

336A Disclosures qualifying for whistleblower protection

- (1) This section applies to a disclosure of information by a person (the discloser) who is, in relation to a superannuation entity, any of the following:
 - (a) a trustee of the superannuation entity;
 - (b) an officer of a body corporate that is a trustee, custodian or investment manager of the superannuation entity;
 - (c) an employee of an individual referred to in paragraph (a) or a body corporate referred to in paragraph (b);
 - (d) a person who has a contract for the supply of services or goods to an individual referred to in paragraph (a) or a body corporate referred to in paragraph (b);

- (e) an employee of a person referred to in paragraph (d).
- (2) The disclosure of the information by the discloser qualifies for protection under this Division if:
 - (a) the disclosure is made to any of the following:
 - (i) the Regulator;
 - (ii) the actuary or auditor of the superannuation entity;
 - (iii) an individual who is a trustee of the superannuation entity;
 - (iv) a director of a body corporate that is the trustee of the superannuation entity;
 - (v) a person authorised by the trustee or trustees of the superannuation entity to receive disclosures of that kind; and
 - (b) the discloser informs the person to whom the disclosure is made of the discloser's name before making the disclosure; and
 - (c) both:
 - (i) the information concerns misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances, in relation to the superannuation entity or a trustee of the entity; and
 - (ii) the discloser considers that the information may assist a person referred to in paragraph (a) to perform the person's functions in relation to the superannuation entity or trustee; and
 - (d) the discloser makes the disclosure in good faith.
- (3) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

336B Whistleblower protection for disclosures that qualify

- (1) If a person makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division:
 - (a) the person is not subject to any civil or criminal liability for making the disclosure; and
 - (b) no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against the person on the basis of the disclosure.
 - (2) Without limiting subsection (1):

- (a) the person has qualified privilege in respect of the disclosure;
and
 - (b) a contract to which the person is a party must not be terminated on the basis that the disclosure constitutes a breach of the contract.
- (3) Without limiting paragraphs (1)(b) and (2)(b), if a court is satisfied that:
- (a) a person (the employee) is employed in a particular position under a contract of employment with another person (the employer); and
 - (b) the employee makes a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division; and
 - (c) the employer purports to terminate the contract of employment on the basis of the disclosure;
- the court may order that the employee be reinstated in that position or a position at a comparable level.
- (4) If an individual makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Division, the information is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information.

336C Victimization of whistleblowers prohibited

Actually causing detriment to another person

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person engages in conduct; and
 - (b) the person's conduct causes any detriment to another person;
and
 - (c) the person intends that his or her conduct cause detriment to the other person; and
 - (d) the person engages in his or her conduct because the other person made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threatening to cause detriment to another person

- (2) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person makes a threat to another person (the second person) to cause any detriment to the second person or to a third person; and
 - (b) the first person:
 - (i) intends the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; or
 - (ii) is reckless as to causing the second person to fear that the threat will be carried out; and
 - (c) the first person makes the threat because a person:
 - (i) made a disclosure that qualifies for protection under this Division; or
 - (ii) may make a disclosure that would qualify for protection under this Division.

Penalty: 25 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

Threats

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a threat may be:
- (a) express or implied; or
 - (b) conditional or unconditional.
- (4) In a prosecution for an offence under subsection (2), it is not necessary to prove that the person threatened actually feared that the threat would be carried out.

Definition

- (5) In this section:
- engage in conduct means:
- (a) do an act; or
 - (b) omit to do an act.

336D Right to compensation

If:

- (a) a person:
 - (i) commits an offence under subsection 336C(1) or (2); or

- (ii) commits an offence under Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code in relation to subsection 336C(1) or (2); and
- (b) another person suffers damage because of the conduct constituting the offence or because of the contravention;
the person is liable to compensate the other person for the damage.

336E Confidentiality requirement for company, company officers and employees and auditors

- (1) A person (the offender) commits an offence under this subsection if:
 - (a) a person (the discloser) makes a disclosure of information that qualifies for protection under this Division; and
 - (b) the disclosure is made to:
 - (i) the auditor of, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit of, the superannuation entity; or
 - (ii) an individual who is a trustee of the superannuation entity; or
 - (iii) a director of a body corporate that is the trustee, custodian or investment manager of the superannuation entity; or
 - (iv) a person authorised by the trustee or trustees of the superannuation entity to receive disclosures of that kind; and
 - (c) the offender is:
 - (i) the auditor of, or a member of an audit team conducting an audit of, the superannuation entity; or
 - (ii) an individual who is the trustee of the superannuation entity; or
 - (iii) a director of a body corporate that is the trustee, custodian or investment manager of the superannuation entity; or
 - (iv) a person authorised by the trustee or trustees of the superannuation entity to receive disclosures of that kind; or
 - (v) an officer or employee of a body corporate that is the trustee, custodian or investment manager of the superannuation entity; and

- (d) the offender discloses any of the following information (the confidential information):
 - (i) the information referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (ii) the identity of the discloser;
 - (iii) information that is likely to lead to the identification of the discloser; and
- (e) the confidential information is information that the offender obtained directly or indirectly because of the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (f) either:
 - (i) the offender is the person to whom the disclosure referred to in paragraph (a) is made; or
 - (ii) the offender is a person to whom the confidential information is disclosed in contravention of this section and the offender knows that the disclosure of the confidential information to the offender was unlawful or made in breach of confidence; and
- (g) the disclosure referred to in paragraph (d) is not authorised under subsection (2).

Penalty: 25 penalty units.

- (2) The disclosure referred to in paragraph (1)(d) is authorised under this subsection if:
 - (a) it is made to APRA; or
 - (b) it is made to a member of the Australian Federal Police (within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979); or
 - (c) it is made to someone else with the consent of the discloser.
- (3) In this section, officer has the same meaning as it has in the Corporations Act 2001.

Division 2—Self-incrimination

336F Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from complying with a requirement under this Act or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 to give information to APRA on the ground that doing so would tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

- (2) However, if the person is an individual, the information given by the individual in compliance with the requirement is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information, if:
- (a) before giving the information, the individual claims that giving the information might tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty; and
 - (b) giving the information might in fact tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty.
- (3) This section does not apply in relation to a requirement under section 129 or 130 or under Part 25.

Note 1: See section 130B in relation to requirements under section 129 or 130.

Note 2: See section 287 in relation to requirements under Part 25.

Insert:

16BA Requirement for auditors to give information about ADIs

Persons to whom requirements apply

- (1) This section applies to a person who is or has been an auditor of a body corporate that is:
 - (a) an ADI; or
 - (b) an authorised NOHC; or

- (c) a subsidiary of an ADI or an authorised NOHC; or
- (d) if an ADI is a subsidiary of a foreign corporation (whether or not the ADI is itself a foreign ADI):
 - (i) another subsidiary (a relevant Australian-incorporated subsidiary) of the foreign corporation (other than a body mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c)), being a subsidiary that is incorporated in Australia; or
 - (ii) another subsidiary (a relevant foreign-incorporated subsidiary) of the foreign corporation (other than a body mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c)), being a subsidiary that is not incorporated in Australia and carries on business in Australia.

Matters requiring immediate notice

- (2) If the person has reasonable grounds for believing that:
 - (a) the body corporate is insolvent or there is a significant risk that the body corporate will become insolvent; or
 - (b) an existing or proposed state of affairs may materially prejudice the interests of:
 - (i) if the body corporate is an ADI or a subsidiary of an ADI—the depositors of the ADI; or
 - (ii) if the body corporate is an authorised NOHC or a subsidiary of an authorised NOHC—the depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the authorised NOHC; or
 - (iii) if the body corporate is a relevant Australian-incorporated subsidiary or a relevant foreign-incorporated subsidiary of a foreign corporation—the depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the foreign corporation;

the person must immediately notify APRA in writing of the matter.

Offences in relation to matters requiring immediate notice

- (3) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes subsection (2).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

- (4) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes subsection (2). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Defence if matter already notified

- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply to a person in relation to a matter referred to in subsection (2) if:
- (a) the person becomes aware of the matter because the person is informed of it by a director or senior manager of the body corporate; and
 - (b) the director or senior manager informs the person that the body corporate has notified APRA in writing of the matter; and
 - (c) the person has no reason to disbelieve the director or senior manager.

Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (5). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (6) If the person has reasonable grounds for believing that:
- (a) the body corporate has failed or will fail to comply with:
 - (i) a provision of this Act, the regulations or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; or
 - (ii) if the body corporate is an ADI or authorised NOHC—a prudential standard; or
 - (iii) if the body corporate is an ADI or authorised NOHC—a direction under Division 1BA of Part II; or
 - (iv) if the body corporate is an ADI—a condition of the body corporate’s section 9 authority; or
 - (v) if the body corporate is an authorised NOHC—a condition of the body corporate’s NOHC authority; and
 - (b) the failure to comply is or will be significant (see subsection (7));
- the person must give APRA a written report about the failure as soon as practicable, and in any event no later than 10 business days.

- (7) For the purposes of paragraph (6)(b), a failure to comply is or will be significant if the failure is or will be significant having regard to any one or more of the following:

- (a) the number or frequency of similar failures;
- (b) the impact the failure has or will have on the body corporate's ability to conduct its business;
- (c) the extent to which the failure indicates that the body corporate's arrangements to ensure compliance with this Act, the prudential standards or the regulations might be inadequate;
- (d) the actual or potential financial loss arising or that will arise from the failure:
 - (i) if the body corporate is an ADI—to the depositors of the body corporate; or
 - (ii) to the body corporate;
- (e) any matters prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

Offences in relation to matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (8) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes subsection (6).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

- (9) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes subsection (6). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Defence if failure already notified

- (10) Subsections (8) and (9) do not apply to a person in relation to a failure to comply referred to in subsection (6) if:
- (a) a director or senior manager of the body corporate informs the person that the body corporate has informed APRA in writing of the failure; and
 - (b) the person has no reason to disbelieve the director or senior manager.

Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (10). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Offence in relation to subsections (5) and (10)

- (11) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is a director or senior manager of a body corporate referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) the person knows that there are reasonable grounds for believing a thing referred to in subsection (2) or (6); and
 - (c) the person informs the auditor of the body corporate that the body corporate has informed APRA in writing of the thing; and
 - (d) the body corporate has not done so.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

161 Paragraph 62A(1)(a)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (a) it becomes aware that it, another member of the group, or the group as a whole, may not be in a sound financial position; and

Note: The following heading to subsection 62A(1) is inserted “Matters requiring immediate notice”.

162 Paragraph 62A(1)(b)

After “notify APRA”, insert “in writing”.

163 After subsection 62A(1)

Insert:

Defence if matter already notified

- (1A) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a matter if:
- (a) the member of the group becomes aware of the matter because it is informed of it by the auditor of the member; and
 - (b) the auditor informs the member that the auditor has notified APRA in writing of the matter; and
 - (c) the member has no reason to disbelieve the auditor.

Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (1A). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (1B) A member of a relevant group of bodies corporate commits an offence if:
- (a) it becomes aware that:
 - (i) it, another member of the group, or the group as a whole, has breached or will breach a prudential standard applying to it, the other member or the group as a whole; or
 - (ii) another member of the group has breached or will breach a provision of this Act or the regulations, or a direction under Division 1BA of Part II or a condition of any authority granted under this Act to the other member; and
 - (b) the breach is or will be significant (see subsection (1C)); and
 - (c) it fails to give APRA a written report about the breach as soon as practicable, and in any case no later than 10 business days, after becoming aware of the breach.

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

- (1C) For the purposes of paragraph (1B)(b), a breach is significant if the breach is or will be significant having regard to any one or more of the following factors:
- (a) the number or frequency of similar breaches;
 - (b) the impact the breach has or will have on the member's or other member's ability to conduct its business;
 - (c) the extent to which the breach indicates that the member's or other member's arrangements to ensure compliance with this Act, the regulations, the prudential standards or a direction or condition might be inadequate;
 - (d) the actual or potential financial loss arising or that will arise from the breach:
 - (i) to the depositors of the ADI or any ADI that is a member of the relevant group of bodies corporate; or
 - (ii) to the member or other member;
 - (e) any matters prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

Defence if auditor notifies breach

- (1D) Subsection (1B) does not apply in relation to a breach if:
- (a) the auditor of the member of the group gives APRA a written report about the breach; and
 - (b) the report is given before, or within 10 business days after, the member becomes aware of the breach.

Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (1D). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

38AA Requirement to notify APRA of certain matters

Matters requiring immediate notice

(1) If:

- (a) a general insurer has breached or will breach a provision of this Act or the prudential standards; and
- (b) the provision relates to financial obligations the general insurer has to its policy holders or to the general insurer’s minimum capital requirements;

the general insurer must immediately notify APRA in writing of the breach.

Offence in relation to matters requiring immediate notice

- (2) A general insurer commits an offence if the general insurer contravenes subsection (1).

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Defence if matter already notified

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a general insurer in relation to a breach referred to in subsection (1) if:
- (a) the general insurer becomes aware of the breach because it is informed of it by the auditor or actuary of the insurer; and
 - (b) the auditor or actuary informs the insurer that the auditor or actuary has notified APRA in writing of the matter; and
 - (c) the insurer has no reason to disbelieve the auditor or actuary.

Note 1: Auditors and actuaries must give APRA certain information under section 49A and may give APRA information under section 49B.

Note 2: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (3). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (4) If a body corporate that is a general insurer, an authorised NOHC or a subsidiary of a general insurer or authorised NOHC becomes aware:

(a) both:

- (i) that the body corporate has breached or will breach a provision of this Act or the prudential standards (other than a provision to which subsection (1) applies); and
- (ii) that the breach is or will be significant (see subsection (5)); or

(b) of a matter that materially and adversely affects the body corporate's financial position;

the body corporate must give APRA a written report about the breach or matter as soon as practicable, and in any case no later than 10 business days, after becoming aware of the breach or matter.

- (5) For the purposes of subparagraph (4)(a)(ii), a breach of a provision is or will be significant if the breach is or will be significant having regard to one or more of the following:

- (a) the number or frequency of similar breaches;
- (b) the impact the breach has or will have on the body corporate's ability to conduct its business;
- (c) the extent to which the breach indicates that the body corporate's arrangements to ensure compliance with this Act or with the prudential standards might be inadequate;
- (d) the actual or potential financial loss arising or that will arise from the breach:
 - (i) to policy holders of the body corporate; or
 - (ii) to the body corporate;
- (e) any matters prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

Offence in relation to matters requiring immediate notice

- (6) A body corporate commits an offence if the body corporate contravenes subsection (5).

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Defence if auditor or actuary notifies breach

- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply to a body corporate in relation to a breach referred to in subsection (4) if:
- (a) the auditor or actuary of the body corporate gives APRA a written report about the breach or matter; and
 - (b) the report is given before, or within 10 business days after, the body corporate becomes aware of the breach or matter.

Note 1: Auditors and actuaries must give APRA certain information under section 49A and may give APRA information under section 49B.

Note 2: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (7). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Ancillary offences

- (8) If an individual:
- (a) commits an offence under subsection (2) or (6) because of Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code; or
 - (b) commits an offence under Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code in relation to an offence under subsection (2) or (6);

the individual is punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

Limits on information to be provided

- (9) A notice or report given under subsection (1) or (4) must not include information, books, accounts or documents with respect to the affairs of an individual insured person, unless the information, books, accounts or documents are in respect of prudential matters relating to the body corporate.

180 Subsection 39(3)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (3) A general insurer must not appoint a person as the auditor or actuary of the insurer unless:
- (a) the insurer is reasonably satisfied that the person meets the eligibility criteria for such an appointment set out in the prudential standards; and
 - (b) no determination is in force under section 44 disqualifying the person from holding such an appointment.

181 Sections 40 and 42

Repeal the sections.

182 Section 43

Before “A person”, insert “(1)”.

183 Paragraph 43(b)

Repeal the paragraph.

184 At the end of section 43

Add:

- (2) A general insurer must end a person’s appointment as auditor or actuary of the general insurer, by giving the person written notice under paragraph (1)(e), if the general insurer is satisfied that the person:
- (a) has, in relation to the insurer, failed to perform adequately and properly the functions and duties of the appointment under this Act or the prudential standards; or

- (b) does not meet one or more of the criteria for fitness and propriety set out in the prudential standards; or
- (c) does not meet the eligibility criteria for the appointment set out in the prudential standards.

185 Paragraphs 49A(2)(b) and (c)

Repeal the paragraphs.

Note 1: The following heading to subsection 49A(1) is inserted “Persons to whom requirements apply”.

Note 2: The following heading to subsection 49A(2) is inserted “Matters requiring immediate notice”.

186 Subsection 49A(2)

Omit “give APRA information (in writing) about the matter”, substitute “immediately notify APRA in writing of the matter”.

Note: The following heading to subsection 49A(3) is inserted “Offences in relation to matters requiring immediate notice”.

187 At the end of section 49A

Add:

Defence in relation to matters requiring immediate notice

- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply to a person in relation to a matter referred to in subsection (2) if:
 - (a) the person becomes aware of the matter because the person is informed of it by a director or senior manager of the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary; and
 - (b) the director or senior manager informs the person that the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary has notified APRA in writing of the matter; and
 - (c) the person has no reason to disbelieve the director or senior manager.

Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (5). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (6) If the person has reasonable grounds for believing:
 - (a) any of the following:

- (i) the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary has failed or will fail to comply with the prudential standards;
 - (ii) in the case of an insurer—the insurer has failed or will fail to comply with a condition of its authorisation under section 12;
 - (iii) in the case of an authorised NOHC—the NOHC has failed or will fail to comply with a condition of its authorisation under section 18;
 - (iv) the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary has failed or will fail to comply with a requirement or direction under this Act or a requirement under the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; and
- (b) that the failure is or will be significant (see subsection (7)); the person must give APRA a written report about the failure as soon as practicable, and in any case no later than 10 business days.
- (7) For the purposes of paragraph (6)(b), a failure to comply is or will be significant if the failure to comply is or will be significant having regard to any one or more of the following:
- (a) the number or frequency of similar failures;
 - (b) the impact the failure has or will have on the insurer's, NOHC's or subsidiary's ability to conduct its business;
 - (c) the extent to which the failure indicates that the insurer's, NOHC's or subsidiary's arrangements to ensure compliance with this Act or with the prudential standards might be inadequate;
 - (d) the actual or potential financial loss arising or that will arise from the failure:
 - (i) in the case of an insurer—to the policy holders of the insurer; or
 - (ii) to the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary;
 - (e) any matters prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

Offences in relation to matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (8) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes subsection (6).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months, or 100 penalty units, or both.

- (9) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes subsection (6). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Defence if failure already notified

- (10) Subsections (8) and (9) do not apply to a person in relation to a failure to comply referred to in subsection (6) if:
- (a) a director or senior manager of the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary informs the person that the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary has informed APRA in writing of the failure; and
 - (b) the person has no reason to disbelieve the director or senior manager.

Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (10). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Offence in relation to subsections (5) and (10)

- (11) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is a director or senior manager of a general insurer, an authorised NOHC or a subsidiary of a general insurer or authorised NOHC; and
 - (b) the person knows that there are reasonable grounds for believing a thing referred to in subsection (2) or (6); and
 - (c) the person informs the auditor or actuary of the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary that the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary has informed APRA in writing of the thing; and
 - (d) the insurer, NOHC or subsidiary has not done so.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

188 At the end of Part IV

Add:

Division 6—Removal of auditors and actuaries

49R APRA may direct removal of auditor or actuary

- (1) APRA may, if satisfied there is a ground under subsection (3), give a written direction to a body corporate that is a general insurer to end the appointment of a person as:
 - (a) the auditor of the general insurer; or
 - (b) the actuary of the general insurer.
- (2) APRA may, if satisfied there is a ground under subsection (3), give a written direction to a body corporate that is an authorised NOHC to end the appointment of a person as:
 - (a) the auditor of the authorised NOHC; or
 - (b) the actuary of the authorised NOHC.
- (3) The grounds for giving a direction to end a person’s appointment are:
 - (a) if the person is the auditor or actuary of a general insurer—the person is disqualified from holding such an appointment under section 44; or
 - (b) the person does not meet one or more of the criteria for fitness and propriety set out in the prudential standards.
- (4) Before directing a body corporate to end a person’s appointment, APRA must:
 - (a) give written notice to:
 - (i) the body corporate; and
 - (ii) the person; and
 - (b) give the body corporate and the person a reasonable opportunity to make submissions on the matter.
- (5) The notice must include a statement that any submissions in response to the notice may be discussed by APRA with other persons as mentioned in paragraph (6)(b).
- (6) If a submission is made in response to the notice, APRA:
 - (a) must have regard to the submission; and
 - (b) may discuss any matter contained in the submission with any persons APRA considers appropriate for the purpose of assessing the truth of the matter.

- (7) A direction to end a person's appointment takes effect on the day specified in the direction, which must be at least 7 days after the direction is made.
- (8) If APRA directs a body corporate to end a person's appointment, APRA must give the body corporate and the person a copy of the direction.
- (9) The power of a body corporate to comply with a direction to end a person's appointment may be exercised on behalf of the body corporate:
 - (a) by the Chair of the board of directors of the body corporate signing a written notice; or
 - (b) by a majority of the directors of the body corporate (excluding any director who is the subject of the direction) jointly signing a written notice.
- (10) Subsection (9) does not by implication limit any other powers of a body corporate to end a person's appointment.
- (11) Part VI applies to a decision by APRA to give a direction under this section on the ground referred to in paragraph (3)(b).
- (12) A direction to end a person's appointment is not a legislative instrument.
- (13) A body corporate commits an offence if:
 - (a) the body corporate does or fails to do an act; and
 - (b) by doing or failing to do the act, the body corporate fails to comply with a direction under this section.

Penalty: 60 penalty units.

- (14) Strict liability applies to subsection (13).

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

220 After section 132

Insert:

132A Requirement to notify APRA of certain matters

Matters requiring immediate notice

- (1) If:
- (a) a life company becomes aware that the life company has breached or will breach a provision of this Act; and
 - (b) the provision relates to financial obligations the life company has to the owners of policies issued by it or to the life company's minimum capital requirements;
- the life company must immediately notify APRA in writing of the breach.

Offence in relation to matters requiring immediate notice

- (2) A life company commits an offence if the life company contravenes subsection (1).

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Defence if matter already notified

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a life company in relation to a breach referred to in subsection (1) if:
- (a) the life company becomes aware of the breach because it is informed of it by the auditor or appointed actuary of the life company; and
 - (b) the auditor or appointed actuary informs the life company that the auditor or actuary has notified APRA in writing of the breach; and
 - (c) the life company has no reason to disbelieve the auditor or appointed actuary.

Note 1: Auditors and appointed actuaries must give APRA certain information under sections 88 and 98, and may give APRA information under sections 88A and 98A.

Note 2: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (3). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (4) If a life company becomes aware:
- (a) both:
 - (i) that the life company has breached or will breach a provision of this Act (other than a provision to which subsection (1) applies); and
 - (ii) that the breach is or will be significant (see subsection (5)); or
 - (b) of a matter that materially and adversely affects the life company's financial position;
- the life company must give APRA a written report about the breach or matter as soon as practicable, and in any case no later than 10 business days, after becoming aware of the breach or matter.
- (5) For the purposes of subparagraph (4)(a)(ii), a breach of a provision is or will be significant if the breach is or will be significant having regard to any one or more of the following:
- (a) the number or frequency of similar breaches;
 - (b) the impact the breach has or will have on the life company's ability to conduct its life insurance business;
 - (c) the extent to which the breach indicates that the life company's arrangements to ensure compliance with this Act or with the prudential standards might be inadequate;
 - (d) the actual or potential financial loss arising or that will arise from the breach:
 - (i) to the owners of policies issued by the life company; or
 - (ii) to the life company;
 - (e) any matters prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

Offence in relation to matters requiring notice as soon as practicable

- (6) A life company commits an offence if the life company contravenes subsection (4).

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Defence if auditor or actuary notifies breach

- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply to a life company in relation to a breach or matter referred to in subsection (4) if:
- (a) the auditor or appointed actuary of the life company gives APRA a written report about the breach or matter; and
 - (b) the report is given before, or within 10 business days after, the life company becomes aware of the breach or matter.

Note 1: Auditors and appointed actuaries must give APRA certain information under sections 88 and 98, and may give APRA information under sections 88A and 98A.

Note 2: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (7). See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Ancillary offences

- (8) If an individual:
- (a) commits an offence under subsection (2) or (6) because of Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code; or
 - (b) commits an offence under Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code in relation to an offence under subsection (2) or (6);
- the individual is punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 40 penalty units.

Limits on information to be provided

- (9) A notice or report given under subsection (1) or (4) must not include information, books, accounts or documents with respect to the affairs of an individual insured person, unless the information, books, accounts or documents are in respect of prudential matters relating to the life company.

Part 5—Application, transitional and saving provisions

290 Application of amendment of section 20 of the Life Insurance Act 1995

Despite the amendment of section 20 of the Life Insurance Act 1995 by this Act, an application made but not determined before the commencement of the amendment is, after the amendment, to be taken to have been made under section 20 as amended.

291 Saving provision for section 11 orders (Banking Act)

- (1) This item applies to an order that was in force under section 11 of the Banking Act 1959 immediately before that section was amended by this Act.
- (2) To the extent that it relates to a provision of the Banking Act 1959 referred to in section 11 as amended by this Act, the order:
 - (a) continues in force after the commencement of the amendments, as if it were a determination made under section 11 as amended; and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by APRA under section 11 as amended.
- (3) An order or part of an order to which subitem (2) does not apply ceases to have effect at the time the amendments of section 11 made by this Act commence.

292 Saving provision for section 7 determinations (Insurance Act)

- (1) This item applies to a determination that was in force under section 7 of the Insurance Act 1973 immediately before that section was amended by this Act.
- (2) To the extent that it relates to a provision of the Insurance Act 1973 referred to in section 7 as amended by this Act, the determination:
 - (a) continues in force after the commencement of the amendments, as if it were a determination made under section 7 as amended; and

- (b) may be varied or revoked by APRA under section 7 as amended.
- (3) A determination or part of a determination to which subitem (2) does not apply ceases to have effect on the day after the end of the period of 12 months beginning on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent, unless earlier revoked by APRA.

293 Saving provision for sections 125A and 125B determinations (Life Act)

- (1) This item applies to a determination that was in force under section 125A or 125B of the Life Insurance Act 1995 immediately before those sections were repealed by this Act.
- (2) To the extent that it relates to a provision of the Life Insurance Act 1995 referred to in section 7A of the Life Insurance Act 1995 as inserted by this Act, the determination:
 - (a) continues in force after the commencement of the amendments, as if it were a determination made under section 7A; and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by APRA under section 7A.
- (3) A determination or part of a determination to which subitem (2) does not apply ceases to have effect at the time sections 125A and 125B are repealed.

294 Saving provision for section 328 exemptions (Superannuation Industry Supervision Act)

- (1) This item applies to an exemption that was in force under section 328 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 immediately before that section was amended by this Act.
- (2) The exemption:
 - (a) continues in force after the commencement of the amendment, as if it were an exemption made under section 328 as amended; and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by the Regulator under section 328 as amended.
- (3) An exemption to which subitem (2) does not apply ceases to have effect at the time the amendment of section 328 made by this Act commences.

295 Saving provision for section 332 declarations
(Superannuation Industry Supervision Act)

- (1) This item applies to a declaration that was in force under section 332 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 immediately before that section was amended by this Act.
- (2) The declaration:
 - (a) continues in force after the commencement of the amendments, as if it were a declaration made under section 332 as amended; and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by APRA under section 332 as amended.
- (3) A declaration or part of a declaration to which subitem (2) does not apply ceases to have effect at the time the amendment of section 332 made by this Act commences.

296 Regulations may prescribe matters

The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing matters of a transitional nature (including prescribing any saving or application provisions) in relation to the amendments or repeals made by this Schedule.

Part 4—Accounts, audit and reporting obligations for superannuation entities

35 Objects of Part

The objects of this Part are:

- (a) to set out rules about the accounts, statements and audits of superannuation entities; and
- (b) to require certain reports and returns relating to superannuation entities to be given to the Regulator.

35A Accounting records (all superannuation entities)

- (1) Each trustee of a superannuation entity must ensure that:
 - (a) accounting records that correctly record and explain the transactions and financial position of the entity are kept; and
 - (b) if the entity is a registrable superannuation entity—the accounts of the entity are kept in a way that enables the preparation of reporting documents referred to in section 13 of the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001; and
 - (c) if the entity is a self managed superannuation fund—the accounting records of the entity are kept in a way that enables the following to be prepared:
 - (i) the accounts and statements of the entity referred to in section 35B;
 - (ii) the returns of the entity referred to in section 35D; and
 - (d) the accounting records of the entity are kept in a way that enables those accounts, statements and returns to be conveniently and properly audited in accordance with this Act.

- (2) If accounting records of a superannuation entity are kept in accordance with subsection (1), each trustee of the superannuation entity must ensure that:
- (a) the records are retained for at least 5 years after the end of the year of income to which the transactions relate; and
 - (b) the records are kept in Australia; and
 - (c) the records are kept:
 - (i) in writing in the English language; or
 - (ii) in a form in which they are readily accessible and readily convertible into writing in the English language.

- (3) A trustee commits an offence if the trustee contravenes subsection (1) or (2).

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

- (4) A trustee commits an offence if the trustee contravenes subsection (1) or (2). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

35B Accounts and statements (self-managed superannuation funds only)

- (1) Each trustee of a superannuation entity that is a self managed superannuation fund must, in respect of each year of income of the fund, ensure that the following accounts and statements are prepared in respect of the entity:
- (a) except where the regulations provide that this paragraph does not apply—a statement of financial position;
 - (b) except where the regulations provide that this paragraph does not apply—an operating statement;
 - (c) the accounts and statements specified in the regulations.
- (2) The regulations may provide for or in relation to the preparation of accounts and statements covered by subsection (1). If the regulations do so, the accounts and statements covered by subsection (1) must be prepared in accordance with the regulations.

- (3) The accounts and statements prepared in accordance with subsection (1) must be signed as follows:
- (a) if there is a single corporate trustee—by:
 - (i) if there is only one director of the corporate trustee—that director; or
 - (ii) otherwise—at least 2 directors of the corporate trustee; or
 - (b) if there is a group of individual trustees—by at least 2 of those trustees.
- (4) Each trustee must ensure that the accounts and statements prepared in accordance with subsection (1) are retained for a period of 5 years after the end of the year of income to which they relate.
- (5) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes this section.
- Penalty: 100 penalty units.
- (6) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes this section. This is an offence of strict liability.
- Penalty: 50 penalty units.
- Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

35C Audit of accounts and statements (all superannuation entities)

- (1) For each year of income, each trustee of a superannuation entity must ensure that an approved auditor is appointed to give the trustee or trustees a report, in the approved form, of the operations of the entity, and the RSE licensee (if any) of the entity, for that year. The appointment must be made within whichever of the periods set out in the regulations applies to the entity.
- (2) If an auditor requests, in writing, a trustee of a superannuation entity to give the auditor a document, each trustee of the entity must ensure that the document is given to the auditor within 14 days of the request being made. Only documents that are relevant to the preparation of the report may be requested.
- (3) A trustee commits an offence if the trustee contravenes subsection (1) or (2).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (4) A trustee commits an offence if the trustee contravenes subsection (1) or (2). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

- (5) Without limiting subsection (1), an approved form:
- (a) must, if it is approved for a registrable superannuation entity, either:
 - (i) relate solely to the audit of financial statements given to APRA under the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 and prepared in respect of a year of income; or
 - (ii) relate only to the audit of those statements and of any other accounts and statements, prepared in respect of a year of income, that are identified in the form; and
 - (b) must, if it is approved for a superannuation entity that is a self managed superannuation fund—either:
 - (i) relate solely to the audit of the accounts and statements referred to in subsection 35B(1) and prepared in respect of a year of income; or
 - (ii) relate only to the audit of those accounts and statements and of any other accounts and statements, prepared in respect of a year of income, that are identified in the form; and
 - (c) must include a statement by the auditor as to whether, in the auditor's opinion, each trustee of the entity and the RSE licensee (if any) of the entity has, during the year of income, complied with the provisions of:
 - (i) this Act and the regulations; and
 - (ii) if the entity is a registrable superannuation entity—the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001, the Corporations Act 2001 and the regulations under that Act;that are identified in the form; and
 - (d) must, if it is approved for a registrable superannuation entity that is registered under Part 2B, include a statement by the auditor as to whether, in the opinion of the auditor, the RSE licensee of the entity:

- (i) has complied with each risk management plan for the entity that applied during that year; and
 - (ii) has adequate systems to ensure future compliance with any risk management plan for the entity; and
 - (iii) has complied with each risk management strategy that applied to the RSE licensee during that year in relation to risks arising from any activities, and proposed activities, as RSE licensee of the entity, and all other activities, or proposed activities, relevant to those activities; and
 - (iv) has adequate systems to ensure future compliance with the risk management strategy for the RSE licensee in relation to future risks arising from any proposed future activities as RSE licensee of the entity, and all other proposed future activities relevant to those activities.
- (6) The auditor must give the report to each trustee of the entity within the prescribed period after the end of the year of income.
- (7) The auditor commits an offence if the auditor contravenes subsection (6).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

- (8) The auditor commits an offence if the auditor contravenes subsection (6). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

35D Trustee to lodge annual returns (self-managed superannuation funds only)

Lodgment

- (1) Each trustee of a superannuation entity that was a self managed superannuation fund at any time during a year of income must, within the reporting period, or within such longer period as the Commissioner of Taxation allows, ensure that the Commissioner of Taxation is given a return under this section.

Period for lodgment

- (2) The reporting period is the period that begins at the end of the year of income and whose length is:
- (a) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; or
 - (b) if the length of the period is not prescribed—specified, by legislative instrument, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Form of return

- (3) The return must:
- (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) contain the information required by the form in relation to the fund in respect of that year of income or in relation to another year of income, or both.

Note: The approved form of return may require a trustee to set out the tax file number of the entity. See subsection 299U(2).

- (4) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes this section.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (5) A person commits an offence if the person contravenes this section. This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 25 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

36 Trustee to give copy of audit report to APRA (registrable superannuation entities only)

Lodgment

- (1) Each trustee of a registrable superannuation entity must, within the prescribed period after the year of income, ensure that APRA is given a copy of the report given to a trustee of the entity by an approved auditor under section 35C in relation to the entity, and any RSE licensee of the entity, in respect of that year of income, certified to be a true copy of the report by:
- (a) if the trustee is a body corporate—a responsible officer of the body corporate; or

(b) if the trustee is a member of a group of individual trustees—at least one of those trustees; or

(c) in any other case—the trustee.

Note: The Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 makes provision for annual returns and other reporting documents to be given by trustees to APRA.

(2) A trustee commits an offence if the trustee contravenes subsection (1).

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

(3) A trustee commits an offence if the trustee contravenes subsection (1). This is an offence of strict liability.

Penalty: 25 penalty units.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.
