Division 1—Preliminary

62A What this Part is about

Certain registered higher education providers who default in delivering a unit of study to a domestic student for whom an up-front payment for the unit of study has been made must give information about the default to the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director and to the student. If the student was entitled to FEE-HELP assistance or HECS-HELP assistance for the unit, the provider may also have obligations under Part 5-1A of the Higher Education Support Act 2003 in relation to the default.

The provider must assist the student to find a replacement unit or replacement course, or provide a refund to the student (and offer the student a choice about this). If the provider fails to discharge this obligation, the Director must offer the student a suitable replacement course. If there is no suitable replacement course, or the student does not accept the offer, the Director must provide a refund to the student.

62B Application of this Part

- (1) This Part applies to registered higher education providers other than:
  - (a) Table A providers; or

- (b) providers that are owned by the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or

    - (vii) the Canberra Institute of Technology Act 1987 (ACT);or
  - (d) providers of a kind prescribed by the Up-front Payments Guidelines.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the Minister may, by written notice, determine that this Part:
- (a) applies to a specified registered higher education provider; or
  - (b) does not apply to a specified registered higher education provider;
- if the Minister considers it appropriate that this Part applies, or does not apply, to the provider.
- (3) In deciding whether it is appropriate that this Part applies, or does not apply, to a specified registered higher education provider, the Minister must have regard to the following:
- (a) the risk of the provider defaulting in relation to one or more domestic students;
  - (b) the provider's financial status and capacity;
  - (c) any non-compliance, or risk of future non-compliance, with the Threshold Standards, this Act, legislative instruments made under this Act or this Act's associated provisions;
  - (d) any advice given to the Minister by TEQSA or the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director in relation to any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c);
  - (e) any other matter the Minister considers appropriate.

- (4) A determination under subsection (2):
  - (a) may be made either unconditionally or subject to conditions; and
  - (b) may be expressed to be in force indefinitely or for a specified period.
- (5) A determination made under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.
- (6) Despite subsection (1), sections 62N, 62P and 62Q apply to all registered higher education providers.

Note: Section 62N deals with the obligations of providers to provide information about replacement courses, section 62P deals with obligations of providers who provide replacement courses and section 62Q deals with the requirement of providers who provide replacement courses to keep up-to-date enrolment information.

  - (b) what credits the student may receive for the units of study of the original course successfully completed by the student;
  - (c) whether the mode of delivery of the replacement course is the same as the mode of delivery of the original course;
  - (d) the location where the replacement course will be primarily delivered;
  - (e) whether the student:
    - (i) will incur additional fees that are unreasonable; and
    - (ii) will be able to attend the course without unreasonable impacts on the student's prior commitments;
  - (f) any other matters prescribed by the Up-front Payments Guidelines.

Suitable replacement course available

- (4) If paragraph (2)(a) applies, the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director must give a written notice to the student that includes the following:
    - (a) a statement that the student may decide to do one of the following:

- (i) enrol in a suitable replacement course;
- (ii) enrol in another course;
- (iii) elect to have an amount equal to the amount the provider was liable to pay the student under subsection 62F(8) paid to the student;
- (b) a description of each suitable replacement course, including the qualification that the replacement course leads to;
- (c) the contact details of the provider of each suitable replacement course;
- (d) an explanation that, if tuition fees have been paid for the affected unit of the original course, tuition fees would not be payable for a replacement unit of a suitable replacement course;
- (e) an explanation that if the student chooses to enrol in another course, there is no obligation on the provider of the other course to offer a replacement unit without charge to the student;
- (f) an explanation of the matters the Director must have regard to under subsection (3);
- (g) any other matters prescribed by the Up-front Payments Guidelines.

Accepting an offer of a suitable replacement course

- (5) If the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director arranges for the student to be offered a place in a suitable replacement course, the student may accept the offer.
- (6) An acceptance must:
  - (a) be in writing; and
  - (b) be given to the provider of the suitable replacement course within the period specified in subsection (7).
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), the period is:
  - (a) the period of 30 days after the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director gives notice under subsection (4); or
  - (b) if the Director determines that exceptional circumstances apply:

- (i) any shorter period determined in writing by the Director; or
- (ii) any longer period (not exceeding 12 months) determined in writing by the Director, and agreed to by the student.

No suitable replacement course available

Elections for FEE-HELP or HECS-HELP must be consistent

- (9) Despite paragraph (4)(a), if the student was entitled to FEE-HELP assistance or HECS-HELP assistance for any affected units of the original course, any elections made under that paragraph in relation to those units must be consistent with any elections made under paragraph 166-26B(4)(a) of the Higher Education Support Act 2003 in relation to those units.

Example: A student who is entitled to FEE-HELP assistance or HECS-HELP assistance for an affected unit of an original course also makes an up-front payment for the same affected unit. The student elects, under subparagraph 166-26B(4)(a)(iii) of the Higher Education Support Act 2003, to have an amount re-credited to the student's HELP balance. The student must elect to receive a refund of the up-front payment under subparagraph (4)(a)(iii) of this section in relation to the affected unit.

- (10) The Up-front Payments Guidelines may prescribe circumstances in which elections are considered to be consistent or inconsistent for the purposes of subsection (9).

62K When payments must be made from the Higher Education Tuition Protection Fund

- (1) If a domestic student accepts an offer of a replacement course in accordance with subsections 62J(5), (6) and (7), the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director must pay to the provider of the replacement course an amount equal to the amount the defaulting provider was liable to pay to the student under subsection 62F(8).
- (2) The Higher Education Tuition Protection Director must pay a domestic student an amount equal to the amount the defaulting provider was liable to pay to the student under subsection 62F(8) if:

  - (b) either:
    - (i) the Director decides, under paragraph 62J(2)(b), that the Director is not satisfied that there is a suitable replacement course for the student; or
    - (ii) the student elects, under subparagraph 62J(4)(a)(iii), to have an amount equal to the amount the provider was liable to pay the student under subsection 62F(8) paid to them.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director is not required to pay an amount under that subsection if:
- (a) the Director becomes aware of the circumstances referred to in paragraph (2)(a) more than 12 months after the day the provider defaulted in relation to the student; or
  - (b) the Director becomes aware of the circumstances referred to in subparagraph (2)(b)(ii) more than 12 months after the day the Director gives notice to the student under subsection 62J(4).

- (4) Despite subsection (1), the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director may pay a greater amount than the amount required to be paid under that subsection to the provider of the replacement course if the Director considers that to do so:
- (a) would best protect the interests of the student; and
  - (b) would not jeopardise the sustainability of the Higher Education Tuition Protection Fund.
- (5) Despite subsection (1), if:
- (a) the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director is required under that subsection to pay an amount to the provider of the replacement course; and
  - (b) the amount required to be paid is more than the cost of the replacement course;
