3 Schedules

Legislation that is specified in a Schedule to this Act is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this Act has effect according to its terms.

Schedule 1—Streamlining administration

Part 1—Warehouse and excise licensing

Division 1—Main amendments

Customs Act 1901

1 Subsection 4(1)

Insert:

Collector has the meaning given by subsection 8(1).

excise-equivalent warehouse licence has the meaning given by subsection 78(1).

2 Subsection 4(1) (definition of Warehouse)

Repeal the definition, substitute:

warehouse means a place at which a person or partnership is authorised by a warehouse licence under section 79 to warehouse goods.

3 Subsection 78(1)

Insert:

excise-equivalent warehouse licence means a warehouse licence that authorises the warehousing of excise-equivalent goods, but does not include a warehouse licence that:

- (a) covers an outwards duty free shop (as defined in subsection 96A(1)); or
- (b) covers an inwards duty free shop (as defined in subsection 96B(1)); or
- (c) authorises the storage of goods (other than fuel) to be supplied to aircraft or ships as aircraft's stores or ship's stores.

An expression used in paragraph (c) of this definition that is defined in section 130C has the same meaning when used in that paragraph as it has in Part VII.

4 Subsection 78(1) (definition of warehouse)

Omit “the warehouse to which the licence relates”, substitute “a warehouse covered by the licence”.

5 Subsection 79(1)

Omit “to use a place described in the licence for warehousing goods”, substitute “to warehouse goods at a place covered by the licence”.

6 Subsections 79(2) and (3)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

- (2) A warehouse licence may cover:
 - (a) if the licence is an excise-equivalent warehouse licence—one or more places; or
 - (b) otherwise—just one place.
- (3) A warehouse licence may authorise, at a place covered by the licence, the warehousing of:
 - (a) goods generally; or
 - (b) goods included in one or more classes.
- (4) A warehouse licence may also authorise, at a place covered by the licence and in relation to all or particular classes of goods warehoused at the place, any of the following activities to be carried on:
 - (a) blending;
 - (b) packaging;
 - (c) processing;
 - (d) manufacturing excisable goods;
 - (e) trading;
 - (f) other activities specified in the licence.

7 Subsection 80(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) An application for a warehouse licence may be made to the Comptroller-General of Customs.
- (1A) The application must:

- (a) be in writing; and
- (b) contain a description of each place that the licence is proposed to cover; and
- (c) specify, for each place that the licence is proposed to cover, the kinds of goods that would be warehoused at the place; and
- (d) set out the name and address of each person the Comptroller-General of Customs is required to consider for the purposes of paragraph 81(1)(a) or (b) or (1A)(a) or (b); and
- (e) set out such particulars of the matters that the Comptroller-General of Customs is required to consider for the purposes of paragraph 81(1A)(c), (d) or (e) as will enable the adequate consideration of those matters; and
- (f) contain such other information as is prescribed; and
- (g) except if the application is for an excise-equivalent warehouse licence—be accompanied by the warehouse licence application charge.

Note: For paragraph (b), only an excise-equivalent warehouse licence may cover more than one place: see subsection 79(2).

8 Subsection 81(1)

Omit “shall not grant a warehouse licence if, in his or her opinion”, substitute “must not grant a warehouse licence if, in the Comptroller-General’s opinion”.

9 Paragraphs 81(1)(c) and (d)

Repeal the paragraphs.

10 Paragraph 81(1)(da)

Omit “licence; or”, substitute “licence.”.

11 Paragraphs 81(1)(e), (f) and (g)

Repeal the paragraphs.

12 After subsection 81(1)

Insert:

- (1A) The Comptroller-General must not grant a warehouse licence that covers a particular place if, in the Comptroller-General’s opinion:
- (a) if the applicant is a company—any director, officer or shareholder of the company who would participate in the management or control of the place is not a fit and proper person to so participate; or
 - (b) in any case—an employee of the applicant who would participate in the management or control of the place is not a fit and proper person to so participate; or
 - (c) in any case—the physical security of the place is not adequate having regard to:
 - (i) the nature of the place; or
 - (ii) the kinds and quantity of goods that would be kept in the place; or
 - (iii) the procedures and methods that would be adopted by the applicant to ensure the security of goods in the place; or
 - (d) in any case—the plant and equipment that would be used in relation to goods at the place are not suitable having regard to the nature of those goods and that place; or
 - (e) in any case—the books of account or records that would be kept in relation to the place would not be suitable to enable an officer of Customs to adequately audit those books or records.

13 Subsection 81(2)

Omit “shall, in determining whether a person is a fit and proper person for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), (b), (c) or (d)”, substitute “must, in determining whether a person is a fit and proper person for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) or (b) or (1A)(a) or (b)”.

14 Subsection 81(3)

Omit “shall”, substitute “must”.

15 At the end of section 81

Add:

- (4) Subject to subsections (1) and (1A) of this section and subsection 79(2), if an application is made for a warehouse licence that would cover more than one place, the Comptroller-General of Customs may decide:

- (a) to grant a warehouse licence that covers any or all of the places; or
- (b) to refuse the application in its entirety.

16 Subsection 81B(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) On application by the holder of a warehouse licence, the Comptroller-General of Customs may (subject to subsections (4) to (5A)), by written notice given to the licence holder, vary the licence to do one or more of the following:
 - (a) remove a place from the places covered by the licence without substituting or adding any places;
 - (b) remove a place from the places covered by the licence and substitute a different place;
 - (c) add a place to the places covered by the licence, subject to subsection 79(2).

Note: To change the boundaries or other details of a place covered by a warehouse licence, the licence may be varied as mentioned in paragraph (b).

17 Paragraph 81B(2)(e)

Before “be accompanied”, insert “except if the application is in relation to an excise-equivalent warehouse licence—”.

18 After subsection 81B(2)

Insert:

- (2A) If:
 - (a) a licence (the first licence) covers a particular place; and
 - (b) the Comptroller-General of Customs varies another warehouse licence held by the same licence holder to cover the place;the Comptroller-General must, by written notice given to the licence holder:
 - (c) unless paragraph (d) applies—vary the first licence to no longer cover the place; or

- (d) if the effect of varying the first licence as mentioned in paragraph (c) would be that no places are covered by the licence—cancel the first licence.

19 Subsection 81B(4)

Omit “his or her”, substitute “the Comptroller-General’s”.

20 Paragraph 81B(4)(a)

Omit “the place whose description is to be substituted, or of the place that would have the altered description,”, substitute “a place that would be covered by the licence as varied”.

21 Paragraphs 81B(4)(b) and (c)

Omit “the place, if the variation were made,”, substitute “a place that would be covered by the licence as varied”.

22 Subsection 81B(5)

Omit “for the substitution of the description of a place in a warehouse licence if, in his or her opinion”, substitute “to vary a warehouse licence to substitute or add a place to the places covered by the licence if, in the Comptroller-General’s opinion”.

23 After subsection 81B(5)

Insert:

- (5A) If paragraph (1)(a) applies, the Comptroller-General must vary the licence to remove the place unless the effect of doing so would be that no place is covered by the licence.

Note: The Comptroller-General must cancel the licence if this subsection prevents the variation of the licence (see paragraph 87(1A)(b)).

- (5B) Subject to subsections (4), (5) and (5A) of this section and subsection 79(2), if an application is made to vary a warehouse licence in relation to more than one place, the Comptroller-General need not vary the licence in relation to each of those places.

24 At the end of section 81B

Add:

- (8) If a warehouse licence is varied under subsection (1) to remove a place (the former warehouse) from the places that are covered by the licence, a Collector may:
- (a) permit goods to be placed in the former warehouse; and
 - (b) permit the removal of goods from the former warehouse, including the removal of goods to a warehouse; and
 - (c) by notice in writing to the licence holder, require the licence holder to remove all or specified goods in the former warehouse to a warehouse approved by the Collector; and
 - (d) take such control of the former warehouse or all or any goods in the former warehouse as may be necessary for the protection of the revenue or for ensuring compliance with the Customs Acts, any other law of the Commonwealth prescribed by the regulations, or a law of a State or Territory prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (e) by notice in writing to the licence holder, require the licence holder to pay to the Commonwealth in respect of the services of officers required as the result of the licence being varied (including services relating to the supervision of activities in relation to the former warehouse permitted by a Collector, the stocktaking of goods in the former warehouse or the reconciliation of records relating to such goods) such fee as the Comptroller-General of Customs determines having regard to the cost of the services; and
 - (f) if the licence holder fails to comply with a requirement under paragraph (c) in relation to goods—remove the goods from the former warehouse to a warehouse; and
 - (g) if goods have been removed in accordance with paragraph (f)—by notice in writing to the licence holder, require the licence holder to pay to the Commonwealth in respect of the cost of the removal such fee as the Comptroller-General of Customs determines having regard to that cost.

25 Subsections 82(1) and (2)

Omit “the warehouse” (wherever occurring), substitute “a warehouse covered by the licence”.

26 Paragraphs 82(4)(a) and (b)

Omit “the warehouse”, substitute “any one or more of the warehouses covered by the licence”.

27 Subsection 83(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) A warehouse licence comes into force on the date on which the licence is granted, unless the Comptroller-General specifies a different date in a written notice given to the applicant, in which case the licence comes into force on the specified date.
- (1A) A warehouse licence that is not an excise-equivalent warehouse licence remains in force until the cancellation or expiry of the licence, whichever occurs first.
- (1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A), a licence expires at the end of:
 - (a) unless paragraph (b) of this subsection applies—the next 30 June following the grant of the licence; or
 - (b) if the licence is renewed one or more times under section 84—the last day of the 12 month-period beginning on the 1 July following the most recent renewal.
- (1C) An excise-equivalent warehouse licence remains in force until the licence is cancelled.

28 Paragraph 83(3)(c)

After “which the”, insert “former”.

29 Subsection 84(1)

After “warehouse licence”, insert “that is not an excise-equivalent warehouse licence”.

30 At the end of subsection 84(1)

Add:

Note: An excise-equivalent warehouse licence remains in force unless it is cancelled.

31 Subsection 84(4)

Repeal the subsection (not including the note), substitute:

- (4) A warehouse licence that has been renewed under this section may be further renewed.

32 Subsection 85(1)

Omit “A warehouse licence charge”, substitute “Subject to subsection (2A), a warehouse licence charge”.

33 After subsection 85(2)

Insert:

- (2A) A warehouse licence charge is not payable in respect of the grant of an excise-equivalent warehouse licence.

34 Subsection 86(1)

Omit “notice in accordance with this section to the holder of a warehouse licence if he or she”, substitute “a notice under subsection (1AA) to the holder of a warehouse licence if the Comptroller-General”.

35 Paragraph 86(1)(a)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (a) one or more of the matters mentioned in any of paragraphs 86(1AC)(a) to (f) exists for each warehouse covered by the licence (whether or not the one or more matters existing for each warehouse are the same); or

36 Paragraphs 86(1)(b), (e) and (f)

Repeal the paragraphs.

37 Paragraph 86(1)(g)

After “condition”, insert “, other than a condition that relates to at least one, but not all, of the warehouses covered by the licence,”.

38 After subsection 86(1)

Insert:

- (1AA) A notice under this subsection:
- (a) must state that, if the licence holder wishes to prevent the cancellation of the licence, the holder may, within 7 days after the day on which the notice was served, give to the Comptroller-General of Customs at an address specified in the notice a written statement showing cause why the licence should not be cancelled; and
 - (b) may, if it appears to the Comptroller-General of Customs to be necessary to do so:
 - (i) for the protection of the revenue; or
 - (ii) for ensuring compliance with the Customs Acts, any other law of the Commonwealth prescribed by the regulations, or a law of a State or Territory prescribed by the regulations;state that the licence is suspended.
- (1AB) If a notice under subsection (1AA) states that a licence is suspended, the licence is suspended on and from the service of the notice.
- (1AC) If a warehouse licence covers more than one warehouse, the Comptroller-General of Customs may give a notice under subsection (1AD) to the licence holder if the Comptroller-General has reasonable grounds for believing that:
- (a) the physical security of a warehouse covered by the licence is no longer adequate having regard to the matters referred to in paragraph 81(1A)(c); or
 - (b) the plant and equipment used in a warehouse covered by the licence are such that the protection of the revenue in relation to goods in the warehouse is inadequate; or
 - (c) where the licence is held by a company—a director, officer or shareholder of the company who participates in the management or control of a warehouse covered by the licence is not a fit and proper person to so participate; or
 - (d) an employee of the holder of the licence, being an employee who participates in the management or control of a warehouse covered by the licence, is not a fit and proper person to so participate; or

- (e) a condition to which the licence is subject that relates to a warehouse covered by the licence has not been complied with; or
- (f) the licence holder has not, for a period of at least 3 years, warehoused excise-equivalent goods at a warehouse covered by the licence.

(1AD) A notice under this subsection:

- (a) must state that, if the licence holder wants the warehouse licence to continue to cover the warehouse, the licence holder may, within 7 days after the day on which the notice was served, give to the Comptroller-General of Customs at an address specified in the notice a written statement showing cause why the warehouse should continue to be covered by the licence; and
- (b) may, if it appears to the Comptroller-General of Customs to be necessary to do so:
 - (i) for the protection of the revenue; or
 - (ii) for ensuring compliance with the Customs Acts, any other law of the Commonwealth prescribed by the regulations or a law of a State or Territory prescribed by the regulations;state that the licence is suspended in relation to the warehouse.

(1AE) If a notice under subsection (1AD) states that a licence is suspended in relation to a warehouse, the licence is suspended in relation to the warehouse on and from the service of the notice.

39 Subsection 86(1A)

Omit “shall, in considering whether a person is a fit and proper person for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), (d), (e) or (f),”, substitute “must, in considering whether a person is a fit and proper person for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c) or (d) or (1AC)(c) or (d),”.

40 Subsection 86(1B)

Omit “shall”, substitute “must”.

41 Subsection 86(2)

Omit “Notice in accordance with this section to the holder of a warehouse licence shall be in writing and shall be”, substitute “A notice under subsection (1AA) or (1AD) must be in writing and must be”.

42 Subsection 86(3)

Repeal the subsection.

43 Subsection 86(5)

Omit “Where a warehouse licence is suspended under this section”, substitute “If a warehouse licence is suspended under subsection (1AB) or (1AE)”.

44 Paragraph 86(5)(b)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (b) must revoke the suspension if, within 28 days after the day on which the licence was suspended:
 - (i) for a suspension under subsection (1AB)—the licence is not cancelled; or
 - (ii) for a suspension under subsection (1AE)—the licence is not varied to no longer cover the warehouse to which the suspension relates.

45 Subsection 86(6)

Omit “this section, a person shall”, substitute “subsection (1AB) or (1AE) in relation to a warehouse, a person must”.

46 Subsection 86(7)

Omit “Notwithstanding subsection (6), during a period in which a warehouse licence is suspended under this section”, substitute “During a period in which a warehouse licence is suspended under subsection (1AB) or (1AE) in relation to a warehouse”.

47 Subsection 87(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) The Comptroller-General of Customs may cancel a warehouse licence if:

- (a) the Comptroller-General is satisfied in relation to the licence as to any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs 86(1)(a) to (h); or
- (b) the Comptroller-General is satisfied on any other grounds that cancellation of the licence is necessary for the protection of the revenue or for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the Customs Acts, any other law of the Commonwealth prescribed by the regulations, or a law of a State or Territory prescribed by the regulations.

48 Subsection 87(1A)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1A) The Comptroller-General of Customs must cancel a warehouse licence if:
 - (a) the Comptroller-General receives a written request from the holder of the licence that the licence be cancelled on and after a specified day; or
 - (b) the holder of the licence has applied for the Comptroller-General to vary the licence as mentioned in paragraph 81B(1)(a) and the effect of doing so would be that no place is covered by the licence.

49 Paragraph 87(2)(b)

Omit “the warehouse”, substitute “a warehouse covered by the licence”.

50 Subsection 87(4)

Omit “he or she must”, substitute “the Comptroller-General must”.

51 Paragraph 87(4)(c)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (c) published in a newspaper or newspapers circulating in each locality in which a place that was a warehouse covered by the licence is situated;

52 Subsection 87(4)

Omit “the place that was the warehouse”, substitute “each place that was a warehouse covered by the licence (a former warehouse)”.

53 Subparagraphs 87(4)(d)(i) and (ii)

Omit “the warehouse”, substitute “a former warehouse”.

54 Paragraph 87(4)(e)

Omit “their goods in that place”, substitute “the goods”.

55 Subsection 87(5)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (5) If the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that all the goods in a former warehouse are the property of a person who held the licence that covered the former warehouse, instead of publishing the notice referred to in subsection (4) in respect of the former warehouse as required by that subsection, the Comptroller-General must ensure that the notice is:
- (a) served, either personally or by post, on the person; or
 - (b) served personally on another person who, at the time of the cancellation of the licence, apparently participated in the management or control of the former warehouse.

Note: The Comptroller-General of Customs will still need to publish the notice as required by subsection (4) in relation to any former warehouses in respect of which they are not so satisfied.

56 After section 87A

Insert:

87B Variation of excise-equivalent warehouse licence to remove warehouse

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Comptroller-General of Customs may vary an excise-equivalent warehouse licence to no longer cover a particular warehouse if:
- (a) the licence covers more than one warehouse; and
 - (b) the Comptroller-General is satisfied as to any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs 86(1AC)(a) to (f) in relation to the particular warehouse.

- (2) The Comptroller-General must not vary a warehouse licence under subsection (1) if the effect of varying the licence would be that no warehouses are covered by the licence.

Note: If this subsection prevents the variation of a licence, the licence may be cancelled (see paragraphs 86(1)(a) and 87(1)(a)).

- (3) The Comptroller-General must vary a licence under subsection (1) by written notice:
- (a) served, either personally or by post, on the licence holder; or
 - (b) served personally on a person who, at the time of service, apparently participates in the management or control of one or more warehouses covered by the licence.
- (4) If a warehouse licence is varied under subsection (1) to no longer cover a warehouse (a former warehouse), the Collector may:
- (a) permit goods to be placed in the former warehouse; and
 - (b) permit the removal of goods from the former warehouse, including the removal of goods to a warehouse; and
 - (c) by notice in writing to the licence holder, require the licence holder to remove all or specified goods in the former warehouse to a warehouse approved by the Collector; and
 - (d) take such control of the former warehouse or all or any goods in the former warehouse as may be necessary for the protection of the revenue or for ensuring compliance with the Customs Acts, any other law of the Commonwealth prescribed by the regulations, or a law of a State or Territory prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (e) by notice in writing to the licence holder, require the licence holder to pay to the Commonwealth in respect of the services of officers required as the result of the licence being varied (including services relating to the supervision of activities in relation to the former warehouse permitted by a Collector, the stocktaking of goods in the former warehouse or the reconciliation of records relating to such goods) such fee as the Comptroller-General of Customs determines having regard to the cost of the services; and
 - (f) if the licence holder fails to comply with a requirement under paragraph (c) of this subsection in relation to goods—remove the goods from the former warehouse to a warehouse; and

- (g) if goods have been removed in accordance with paragraph (f) of this subsection—by notice in writing to the licence holder, require the licence holder to pay to the Commonwealth in respect of the cost of the removal such fee as the Comptroller-General of Customs determines having regard to that cost.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), if the Comptroller-General of Customs varies a warehouse licence under subsection (1), the Comptroller-General must, by notice:
- (a) published on the Department’s website; and
 - (b) published in the Gazette; and
 - (c) published in a newspaper or newspapers circulating in each locality in which a place that is no longer a warehouse covered by the licence is situated;
- inform the owners of goods in each former warehouse:
- (d) that they are required, within a time specified in the notice or any further time allowed by the Comptroller-General of Customs, to:
 - (i) pay to the Collector duty payable in respect of their goods in a former warehouse; or
 - (ii) remove any of their goods warehoused in a former warehouse to another place in accordance with permission obtained from the Collector; and
 - (e) that, if they do not comply with the requirements of the notice, the goods in the former warehouse will be sold.
- (6) If the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that all the goods in a former warehouse are the property of a person who holds the licence that covered the former warehouse, instead of publishing the notice referred to in subsection (5) in respect of the former warehouse as required by that subsection, the Comptroller-General must ensure that the notice is:
- (a) served, either personally or by post, on the person; or
 - (b) served personally on another person who, at the time of the variation of the licence, apparently participated in the management or control of the former warehouse.

Note: The Comptroller-General of Customs will still need to publish the notice as required by subsection (5) in relation to any former warehouses in respect of which the Comptroller-General is not so satisfied.

- (7) If the owner of goods to which a notice under subsection (5) applies fails to comply with the requirements of the notice within the time specified in the notice or any further time allowed by the Comptroller-General of Customs, the goods may be sold by a Collector.

57 Section 88

Omit “the warehouse shall be deemed”, substitute “a warehouse covered by the licence is taken”.

58 Subsection 90(1)

Omit “shall”, substitute “must, at each warehouse covered by the licence”.

59 Section 98

Omit “packaging in the warehouse”, substitute “packaging in a warehouse covered by the licence”.

60 Subsection 99(3)

Omit “the warehouse”, substitute “a warehouse covered by the licence”.

61 Subsection 101(1)

Omit “he or she shall, as soon as practicable, before the goods are delivered to the warehouse”, substitute “the owner must, as soon as practicable, before the goods are delivered to a warehouse”.

62 Subsection 102A(3)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (3) The holder of a warehouse licence must give the Department notice in accordance with subsection (3A) if:
- (a) goods that have previously been released for export from a warehouse covered by the licence are returned to the warehouse; or
 - (b) excise-equivalent goods that have previously been released for export from a warehouse covered by the licence are returned to a different warehouse covered by that or any other excise-equivalent warehouse licence.

(3A) A notice under subsection (3) must:

- (a) be given electronically; and
- (b) be given within the period prescribed by the regulations; and
- (c) state that the goods have been returned; and
- (d) include such particulars of the return of the goods as are required by an approved statement.

63 Subparagraph 105B(1)(d)(i)

Omit “described in”, substitute “covered by”.

64 Subparagraph 105B(1)(d)(ii)

Omit “specified in”, substitute “covered by”.

65 Subparagraph 105C(1)(d)(i)

Omit “described in”, substitute “covered by”.

66 Subparagraph 105C(1)(d)(ii)

Omit “specified in”, substitute “covered by”.

67 Paragraph 105E(a)

Omit “described in”, substitute “covered by”.

68 Paragraph 105E(b)

Omit “specified in”, substitute “covered by”.

69 Subsection 183UA(1) (paragraph (e) of the definition of Customs place)

Omit “described in a licence for warehousing goods”, substitute “covered by a warehouse licence”.

70 Paragraph 273GAA(2)(a)

After “licence”, insert “or refusing to grant a warehouse licence in relation to a particular place”.

71 Subsection 273GAA(7)

Omit “in accordance with section 86 to the holder of a warehouse licence shall”, substitute “under subsection 86(1AA) or (1AD) must”.

Excise Act 1901

72 Subsection 4(1) (definition of approved place)

Repeal the definition, substitute:

approved place means:

- (a) premises covered by a storage licence; or
- (b) premises, other than premises that are a factory, covered by a manufacturer licence.

73 Subsection 4(1) (definition of dealer licence)

Repeal the definition, substitute:

dealer licence has the meaning given by subsection 38(5).

- (4) Section 81B of the Customs Act 1901, as amended by this Part, applies in relation to an application to vary a warehouse licence if the application is made on or after the commencement of this item, whether the licence is granted before, on or after that commencement.

- (5) Paragraph 81B(2)(e) of the Customs Act 1901, as in force immediately before the commencement of this item, does not apply in relation to an application to vary an excise-equivalent warehouse licence if the application is made but not decided before that commencement.
- (6) Subsections 83(1A) to (1C), and sections 84, 86, 87 and 87B, of the Customs Act 1901, as amended by this Part, apply on and after the commencement of this item in relation to a warehouse licence that is in force on or after that commencement, whether the licence is granted before, on or after that commencement.
- (7) Subsection 85(2A) of the Customs Act 1901, as amended by this Part, applies to the grant of an excise-equivalent warehouse licence on or after the commencement of this item, even if the licence was applied for before that commencement.
- (8) A place specified or described in a warehouse licence that is in force immediately before the commencement of this item is taken, on and after that commencement, to be and always to have been covered by the licence for all purposes (subject to any variation of the licence on or after that commencement).
- (9) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection 102A(3) of the Customs Act 1901 that were in force immediately before the commencement of this item continue in force (and may be dealt with) as if they had been made for the purposes of paragraph 102A(3A)(b) of that Act, as amended by this Act.

171 Transitional provisions—warehouse licence application charges and warehouse licence charges

- (1) If:
 - (a) a person or partnership applied for an excise-equivalent warehouse licence (within the meaning of the Customs Act 1901 as amended by this Part) before the commencement of this item; and
 - (b) the licence is granted before, on or after that commencement; and
 - (c) the licence comes into force on or after 1 July 2024;then:

- (d) the Comptroller-General of Customs, on behalf of the Commonwealth, must refund to the person or partnership an amount equal to so much of any warehouse licence application charge as has been paid for the grant of the licence; and
 - (e) so much of any warehouse licence charge as has not been paid in respect of the grant of the licence before the commencement of this item is taken on and after that commencement to no longer be payable under section 85 of the Customs Act 1901; and
 - (f) the Comptroller-General of Customs, on behalf of the Commonwealth, must refund to the person or partnership an amount equal to so much of any warehouse licence charge as has been paid for the grant of the licence.
- (2) If:
- (a) a person or partnership applied to renew an excise-equivalent warehouse licence (within the meaning of the Customs Act 1901 as amended by this Part) before the commencement of this item; and
 - (b) the licence is renewed before 1 July 2024; and
 - (c) but for the amendments of section 83 of the Customs Act 1901 made by this Part, the 12 month period mentioned in subsection 84(4) of that Act would have ended on 30 June 2025;
- then:
- (d) so much of any warehouse licence charge as has not been paid in respect of the renewal of the licence before the commencement of this item is taken on and after that commencement to no longer be payable under section 85 of the Customs Act 1901; and
 - (e) the Comptroller-General of Customs, on behalf of the Commonwealth, must refund to the person or partnership an amount equal to so much of any warehouse licence charge as has been paid for the renewal of the licence.
- (3) Despite the amendments of the Customs Licensing Charges Act 1997 made by this Part, section 6E of that Act, as in force immediately before commencement of this item, continues to apply in relation to the grant of a licence that came into force before 1 July 2024.

172 Application provisions—amendment of the Excise Act 1901

- (1) Except as is otherwise provided by this item, the amendments of the Excise Act 1901 made by this Part apply in relation to:
 - (a) a licence that is granted on or after the commencement of this item on an application made on or after that commencement; and
 - (b) a licence that is varied on or after that commencement.
- (2) Sections 39 to 39C of the Excise Act 1901, as amended by this Part, apply in relation to an application for a licence made on or after the commencement of this item.
- (3) Sections 39E to 39L of the Excise Act 1901, as amended by this Part, apply on and after the commencement of this item in relation to a licence that is in force on or after that commencement, whether the licence is granted before, on or after that commencement.
- (4) Subsections 39M(1) and (3) and 39N(1) of the Excise Act 1901, as amended by this Part, apply to a licence that ceases to be in force on or after the commencement of this item.
- (5) Despite the amendments of sections 77E and 77F of the Excise Act 1901 made by this Part, those sections, as in force immediately before the commencement of this item, continue to apply in relation to a brewery licence that is cancelled, or that expires without being renewed, before that commencement.
- (6) A place specified in a licence that is in force immediately before the commencement of this item is taken, on and after that commencement, to be and always to have been covered by the licence for all purposes (subject to any variation of the licence on or after that commencement).
