Summary of issues raised and responses

| Issue  No. | Issue raised | ATO response I action taken |
| :---: | :--- | :--- |
| 1 | The draft Ruling does not go into enough detail on  when a supply would be a supply of real property  (paragraph 10 only contains examples). For example,  would a licence to use a corporate box to view a  sporting event, a specified place to set up a booth in  a convention, or a ticket to enter a stadium with  assigned seating be 'real property' (legally, all three  involve a licence to occupy land as per paragraph  10)? | A footnote has been added to paragraph 9 of the final Ruling  directing the reader to the existing ATO view contained in  Goods and Services Tax Ruling GSTR 2003/7 Goods and  Services Tax: what do the expressions 'directly connected  with goods or real property' and 'a supply of work physically  performed on goods' mean for the purposes of subsection  $38-190(1)$ of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services  Tax) Act 1999?, which deals with the characterisation of a  supply of real property. |
| 2 | If there are any further changes to the draft Ruling  and new examples included, we would appreciate the  opportunity to comment. | No further examples have been added to the final Ruling. |
