Goods and Services Tax Ruling

Goods and services tax: adjustment notes

Goods and Services Tax Ruling GSTR 2000/1 sets out the minimum information requirements for adjustment notes under section 29-75 of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999. GSTR 2000/1 also refers to circumstances in which you do not need to hold an adjustment note to make a decreasing adjustment.

Amendments of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax Transition) Act 1999 by the Tax Laws Amendment (Long-term Non-reviewable Contracts) Act 2005 introduced an additional circumstance in which a decreasing adjustment can be made without holding an adjustment note. This Addendum amends GSTR 2000/1 to reflect this change.

This Addendum applies from 22 February 2005. You can rely on the amendments to GSTR 2000/1, as amended by this Addendum, for the purposes of section 37 of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 from the date of issue of the Addendum.

GSTR 2000/1 is amended as follows:

1. Paragraph 12

Omit paragraph 12 and substitute the following paragraphs:

12. There are, however, some circumstances in which you do not need an adjustment note if you have a decreasing adjustment. This is the case if:

- the GST exclusive value of the taxable supply was $50 or less;<sup>9</sup> or
- the GST on the taxable supply is payable by the recipient because of section 15C of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax Transition) Act 1999<sup>9A</sup> (GST Transition Act); or

<sup>9A</sup> Division 2 of Part 3 of the GST Transition Act applies to agreements spanning both 1 July 2000 and 1 July 2005. In the circumstances described in section 15C of that Act, the GST on a taxable supply made under such an agreement is payable by the recipient (to the extent the supply is made on or after a certain date occurring on or after 1 July 2005). Subsection 15H(4) of that Act provides that subsection 29-20(3) of the GST Act does not apply, so that the recipient may make a decreasing adjustment without holding an adjustment note.

- a determination by the Commissioner under subsection 29-20(3) applies to your circumstances.

12A. You also do not need an adjustment note to attribute an increasing adjustment.<sup>10</sup>

2. Paragraph 59

Omit paragraph 59 and substitute the following paragraph:

59. There are some circumstances in which you may claim a decreasing adjustment without holding an adjustment note (see paragraph 12 of this Ruling). One circumstance is if the Commissioner has made a determination under subsection 29-20(3) of circumstances in which an adjustment note is not required. The Commissioner may exercise this power in the circumstances described at paragraphs 60 to 63.
