This Determination, to the extent that it is capable of being a 'public ruling' in terms of Part IVAAA of the Taxation Administration Act 1953, is a public ruling for the purposes of that Part. Taxation Ruling TR 92/1 explains when a Determination is a public ruling and how it is binding on the Commissioner. Unless otherwise stated, this Determination applies to years commencing both before and after its date of issue. However, this Determination does not apply to taxpayers to the extent that it conflicts with the terms of a settlement of a dispute agreed to before the date of issue of the Determination (see paragraphs 21 and 22 of Taxation Ruling TR 92/20).

Taxation Determination

Income tax: capital gains: where an asset owned by the deceased at the time of death passes to a remainderman on the death of a life tenant, what is the date of acquisition of the asset by the remainderman?

1. A remainderman, who has a vested or contingent interest in an asset which formed part of the estate of a deceased person, is a beneficiary in that estate.
2. If the deceased died before 20 September 1985, the remainderman is taken to have acquired the asset before that date. (This is the case even if the asset does not pass to the remainderman until the life tenant dies on or after 20 September 1985) - subsection 160X(4) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.
3. If the deceased dies on or after 20 September 1985, the remainderman is taken to have acquired the asset on the date of death of the deceased - subsection 160X(5).
