Taxation Ruling

Income tax: withholding tax implications of cross border leasing arrangements

This Addendum is a public ruling for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1953. It amends Taxation Ruling TR 98/21 to update the treatment of cross-border leasing arrangements in accordance with current legal principles.

TR 1998/21 is amended as follows:

1. Paragraph 8

Omit the paragraph; substitute:

8. 'Conversely, where the main object of the transaction in the context of cross border leases is hire, even where the hirer has an option to purchase the equipment, royalty withholding tax under subsection 128B(5A) of the Act applies. However subsection 17A(5) of the International Agreements Act 1953 (Cth) provides that section 128B of the Act (which deals with liability for withholding tax) does not apply to the payment of a royalty as defined in subsection 6(1) of that Act if:

- (a) the royalty is paid to a person who is a resident of a Contracting State or territory (other than Australia) for the purposes of an agreement, and
- (b) the agreement does not treat the amount paid as a royalty.

8A. Therefore the withholding tax will not apply where there is no mismatch between the international agreement and subsection 6(1) of the Act. Another situation where this arises is when the international agreement expressly excludes royalty treatment because the equipment is classed as 'substantial equipment' which gives rise to a permanent establishment and in turn, Australia has taxing rights. This issue is dealt with further in Taxation Ruling TR 2007/11 and Taxation Ruling TR 2007/10.
