Ruling

CGT event A1 happened on the disposal of your Anteris Technologies Ltd ordinary shares

7. CGT event A1 happened when you disposed of your Anteris ordinary shares (section 104-10).

8. The time of CGT event A1 was on the Implementation Date (paragraph 104-10(3)(b)).

9. The capital proceeds from CGT event A1 happening to each Anteris ordinary share is the market value of the Anteris US share, or the CHESSE Depository Interest (CDI) in relation to an Anteris US share, you received in respect of your disposal of the Anteris ordinary share (subsection 116-20(1)). The market value of the Anteris US share or CDI is worked out as at the time of CGT event A1 happening.

10. You made a capital gain from CGT event A1 happening if the capital proceeds from the disposal of your Anteris ordinary share were more than the cost base of that share.

11. You made a capital loss from CGT event A1 happening if the capital proceeds from the disposal of your Anteris ordinary share were less than the reduced cost base of that share (subsection 104-10(4)).

Availability of scrip for scrip roll-over for Australian-resident shareholders

12. Subject to the qualification in paragraph 13 of this Ruling, if you are a resident of Australia and you made a capital gain from the disposal of your Anteris ordinary shares, you may choose to obtain scrip for scrip roll-over for the capital gain (sections 124-780 and 124-785).

13. Scrip for scrip roll-over cannot be chosen if any capital gain you might make from a replacement Anteris US share or CDI would be disregarded, except because of a roll-over (paragraph 124-795(2)(a)).

Consequences if you choose scrip for scrip roll-over for your Anteris Technologies Ltd shares

Capital gain is disregarded

14. If you choose scrip for scrip roll-over, you disregard the capital gain you made from CGT event A1 happening on the disposal of your Anteris ordinary shares (subsection 124-785(1)).

Status: legally binding

Cost base and reduced cost base of shares in Anteris Technologies Global Corp or CHESSE Depository Interests

15. If you choose scrip for scrip roll-over, the first element of the cost base and reduced cost base of a replacement Anteris US share or CDI you received is worked out by reasonably attributing to it the cost base and reduced cost base (respectively) of the Anteris ordinary share for which it was exchanged and for which you obtained the roll-over (subsections 124-785(2) and (4)).

16. We accept that a reasonable method of attribution would be to calculate the first element of the cost base and reduced cost base of each replacement Anteris US share or CDI by dividing the total cost bases of your Anteris ordinary shares by the number of replacement Anteris US shares or CDIs you received.

Acquisition date of shares in Anteris Technologies Global Corp or CHESSE Depository Interests

17. For the purposes of working out whether a future capital gain from the replacement Anteris US share or CDI is a discount capital gain, the Anteris US share or CDI you acquired in exchange for your Anteris ordinary share is taken to have been acquired on the date you acquired, for CGT purposes, the corresponding Anteris ordinary share involved in the roll-over (table item 2 of subsection 115-30(1)).

Consequences if you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over for your Anteris Technologies Ltd shares

Capital gain is not disregarded

18. If you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over, you must take into account any capital gain or capital loss from CGT event A1 happening on the disposal of your Anteris ordinary shares in working out your net capital gain or net capital loss for the income year in which CGT event A1 happened (sections 102-5 and 102-10).

19. If you made a capital gain from CGT event A1 happening on the disposal of your Anteris ordinary shares where scrip for scrip roll-over is not chosen, or cannot be chosen, you can treat the capital gain as a discount capital gain provided that the conditions of Subdivision 115-A are met.

Cost base and reduced cost base of shares in Anteris Technologies Global Corp or CHESSE Depository Interests

20. If you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over, the first element of the cost base and reduced cost base of a replacement Anteris US share or CDI you received is equal to the market value of the Anteris ordinary share you gave in respect of acquiring the Anteris US share or CDI (subsections 110-25(2) and 110-55(2)).

21. The market value of the Anteris ordinary shares you gave is worked out as at the time when you acquired the Anteris US shares or CDIs on the Implementation Date.

22. We accept that you can apportion the total market value of your Anteris ordinary shares (worked out as at the Implementation Date) across the total number of Anteris US shares or CDIs you acquired on the Implementation Date (subsection 112-30(1)).

Status: legally binding

Acquisition date of shares in Anteris Technologies Global Corp or CHESSE
Depository Interests

23. If you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over, the acquisition date of the Anteris US shares or CDIs is the date on which those shares or CDIs were issued to you, being the Implementation Date (table item 2 of section 109-10).

Foreign resident shareholders

24. If you were a foreign resident just before the Implementation Date, you cannot choose scrip for scrip roll-over unless your Anteris US shares or CDIs were taxable Australian property (as defined in section 855-15) just after the Implementation Date (subsection 124-795(1)).

25. Your Anteris US shares or CDIs were taxable Australian property if they were a CGT asset covered by subsection 104-165(3) (choosing to disregard a capital gain or capital loss on ceasing to be an Australian resident).

26. If you were a foreign resident just before the Implementation Date, you disregard any capital gain or capital loss you made from CGT event A1 happening on the disposal of your Anteris ordinary shares unless your Anteris ordinary shares were taxable Australian property (section 855-10).

27. The acquisition date of the Anteris US shares or CDIs is the date on which those shares or CDIs were issued to you, being the Implementation Date (table item 2 of section 109-10).
