Note 2: For an alternative test, see subsections 165-150(2), 165-155(2) and 165-160(2).

- (2) For the purposes of a primary test or an alternative test, a company (the stakeholding company) is not prevented from:

- (a) beneficially owning *shares in another company, or any other interest in another entity; or

- (b) having the right to exercise, controlling, or being able to control, voting power in another company or any other entity; or
 - (c) having the right to receive any *dividends that another company or any other entity may pay; or
 - (d) having the right to receive any distribution of capital of another company or of any other entity;
- merely because:
- (e) the stakeholding company is or becomes:
 - (i) an externally-administered body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001; or
 - (ii) an entity with a similar status under a *foreign law to an externally-administered body corporate; or
 - (f) either:
 - (i) a provisional liquidator is appointed to the stakeholding company under section 472 of the Corporations Act 2001; or
 - (ii) a person with a similar status under a foreign law to a provisional liquidator is appointed to the stakeholding company.

165-209 Dual listed companies

Section 165-150 does not apply to *shares that are *dual listed company voting shares.

74 Subsection 165-210(1)

Omit “The company”, substitute “A company (other than a company covered by section 165-212A)”.

75 At the end of subsection 165-210(1)

Add:

Note: Companies whose total income for an income year is more than $100 million cannot satisfy the same business test for the same business test period: see section 165-212A.

76 At the end of Subdivision 165-E

Add:

165-212A Some companies cannot satisfy the same business test

For the purposes of this Division and Division 166, a company does not satisfy the *same business test for the whole or a part of the income year if the *total income of the company for the income year is more than $100 million.

Note: Section 165-212C sets out how to work out the total income of a company that is not able to work out its total income for a 12 month period.

165-212B Definition of total income

- (1) The total income of a company for an income year is the total of the following:
 - (a) any *assessable income (other than any *net capital gains) *derived during the year by the company;
 - (b) any *exempt income derived during the year by the company;
 - (c) any *non-assessable non-exempt income derived during the year by the company.
- (2) In working out the amount of a company's *non-assessable non-exempt income under paragraph (1)(c), do not include:
 - (a) any amount covered by section 17-5 (which is about GST);
or
 - (b) any amount of non-assessable non-exempt income that is not included in the company's *assessable income because an equivalent amount has already been included in the company's assessable income (whether in that year or an earlier income year).

Note: For example, under section 70-90, the actual amount received for trading stock disposed of outside the ordinary course of business is not included in a company's assessable income because the market value of that stock has already been included in the company's assessable income.

165-212C Total income of companies who cannot work out their total income for a 12 month period

- (1) This section sets out how to apply sections 165-212A and 716-805 if:
 - (a) the company does not exist for the whole income year; or

- (b) the company is a *subsidiary member of a *consolidated group or a *MEC group for a part of the income year.
- (2) The *total income of the company for the income year is the amount that the company reasonably estimates would be the total income if:
 - (a) the company were in existence for the whole of the income year; and
 - (b) the company were not a *subsidiary member of a *consolidated group or a *MEC group at any time during the year.
- (3) This section applies instead of section 716-850 (which is about grossing up threshold amounts).

165-212D Restructure of MDOs etc.

- (1) An *MDO does not fail to satisfy the *same business test merely because, before 1 July 2003:
 - (a) the MDO restructured the way it *provides medical indemnity cover; or
 - (b) the MDO ceased to provide medical indemnity cover; in order to comply with the Medical Indemnity (Prudential Supervision and Product Standards) Act 2003.
- (2) A *general insurance company which is an *associate of an *MDO does not fail to satisfy the *same business test merely because, before 1 July 2003:
 - (a) the MDO restructured the way it *provides medical indemnity cover; or
 - (b) the MDO ceased to provide medical indemnity cover; in order to comply with the Medical Indemnity (Prudential Supervision and Product Standards) Act 2003.

165-212E Entry history rule does not apply for the purposes of the same business test

For the purposes of the *same business test, if an entity (the joining entity) becomes a *subsidiary member of a *consolidated group or a *MEC group, section 701-5 (the entry history rule) does not operate to take the *business of the *head company of the group to include the business of the joining entity before it became a *member of the group.

77 Paragraph 165-235(2)(c)

Omit “or net capital loss”.

- (1) For the purposes of sections 165-15, 165-40, 165-115D, 165-115M and 165-129, a person is not prevented from controlling, or being or becoming able to control, voting power in a company merely because:
 - (a) the company is or becomes:
 - (i) an externally-administered body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001; or
 - (ii) an entity with a similar status under a *foreign law to an externally-administered body corporate; or
 - (b) either:
 - (i) a provisional liquidator is appointed to the company under section 472 of the Corporations Act 2001; or
 - (ii) a person with a similar status under a foreign law to a provisional liquidator is appointed to the company.
- (2) For the purposes of sections 165-15, 165-40, 165-115D, 165-115M and 165-129, a company (the stakeholding company) is not prevented from controlling, or being or becoming able to control, voting power in another company merely because:
 - (a) the stakeholding company is or becomes:
 - (i) an externally-administered body corporate within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001; or

- (ii) an entity with a similar status under a *foreign law to an externally-administered body corporate; or
- (b) either:
 - (i) a provisional liquidator is appointed to the stakeholding company under section 472 of the Corporations Act 2001; or
 - (ii) a person with a similar status under a foreign law to a provisional liquidator is appointed to the stakeholding company.

165-255 Incomplete periods

- (1) If:
 - (a) this Division or Division 166 requires a company to meet or satisfy a condition or test, or work out an amount, for a period; and
 - (b) the company is only in existence after the beginning of the period;then the period is taken to start on the first day that the company is in existence.
- (2) If:
 - (a) this Division or Division 166 requires a company to meet or satisfy a condition or test, or work out an amount, for a period; and
 - (b) the company ceases to be in existence before the end of the period;then the period is taken to end on the day the company ceases to be in existence.

Division 166—Income tax consequences of changing ownership or control of a widely held or eligible Division 166 company

Table of Subdivisions

Guide to Division 166

- 166-AA The object of this Division
- 166-A Deducting tax losses of earlier income years
- 166-B Working out the taxable income, tax loss, net capital gain and net capital loss for the income year of the change
- 166-C Deducting bad debts
- 166-CA Changeover times and alteration times
- 166-D Tests for finding out whether the widely held or eligible Division 166 company has maintained the same owners
- 166-E Concessional tracing rules

Guide to Division 166

166-1 What this Division is about

This Division modifies the way the rules in Division 165 apply to a widely held or eligible Division 166 company by making it easier for the company to apply the rules.

If the company has maintained the same owners as between certain points of time, it does not need to prove it has maintained the same owners throughout the periods in between.

In certain cases, special concessional tracing rules deem entities to hold voting, dividend or capital stakes in the company so that the company does not have to trace through to the ultimate beneficial owners of the stakes.

Subdivision 166-AA—The object of this Division

166-3 The object of this Division

- (1) The object of this Division is to make it easier for a *widely held company, or an *eligible Division 166 company, to apply the rules in Division 165 (because of the difficulty the company might have under that Division in actually tracing through to the ultimate beneficial owners of *voting stakes, *dividend stakes and *capital stakes in the company).
- (2) This Division makes it easier to apply the rules in Division 165 by:

- (a) making it unnecessary for the company to prove that it has maintained the same owners throughout a period, if the company had the same owners at certain test times; and
- (b) making it unnecessary for the company to trace through to the ultimate beneficial owners of:
 - (i) *voting stakes, *dividend stakes and *capital stakes in the company held by certain entities (whether directly, or *indirectly through one or more interposed entities); and
 - (ii) small *voting stakes, *dividend stakes and *capital stakes in the company.

Subdivision 166-A—Deducting tax losses of earlier income years

Table of sections

166-5	How Subdivision 165-A applies to a widely held or eligible Division 166 company
166-15	Companies can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to them

166-5 How Subdivision 165-A applies to a widely held or eligible Division 166 company

- (1) This Subdivision modifies the way Subdivision 165-A applies to a company that is:
 - (a) a *widely held company at all times during the income year; or
 - (b) an *eligible Division 166 company at all times during the income year; or
 - (c) a widely held company for a part of the income year and an eligible Division 166 company for the rest of the income year.

Note 1: Subdivision 165-A is about the conditions a company must meet before it can deduct a tax loss for an earlier income year.

Note 2: A company can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to it: see section 166-15.

Note 3: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete income years.

Meaning of test period

- (2) The company's test period is the period consisting of the *loss year, the income year and any intervening period.

Note: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

Substantial continuity of ownership

- (3) The company is taken to have met the conditions in section 165-12 (which is about the company maintaining the same owners) if there is *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and:

- (a) the end of each income year in that period; and
- (b) the *end of each *corporate change in that period.

Note: See sections 166-145 and 166-175 to work out whether there is substantial continuity of ownership and a corporate change.

No substantial continuity of ownership

- (4) The company is taken to have failed to meet the conditions in section 165-12 if there is no *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and:

- (a) the end of an income year in that period; or
- (b) the *end of a *corporate change in that period.

Satisfies the same business test

- (5) However, if the company satisfies the *same business test for the income year (the same business test period), it is taken to have satisfied the condition in section 165-13.

Note 1: For the same business test, see Subdivision 165-E.

Note 2: Companies whose total income for the income year is more than $100 million cannot satisfy the same business test for that year: see section 165-212A.

Note 3: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

- (6) Apply the *same business test to the *business that the company carried on immediately before the earlier of the following times (the test time):

- (a) the end of the first income year;
 - (b) the first time in the test period that a *corporate change in the company *ends;

for which there is no *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and that time.

166-15 Companies can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to them

- (1) The company can choose that Subdivision 165-A is to apply to it for the income year without the modifications made by this Subdivision.
- (2) The company must choose on or before the day it lodges its *income tax return for the income year, or before a later day if the Commissioner allows.

Subdivision 166-B—Working out the taxable income, tax loss, net capital gain and net capital loss for the income year of the change

Table of sections

166-20	How Subdivisions 165-B and 165-CB apply to a widely held or eligible Division 166 company
166-25	How to work out the taxable income, tax loss, net capital gain and net capital loss
166-35	Companies can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to them

166-20 How Subdivisions 165-B and 165-CB apply to a widely held or eligible Division 166 company

- (1) This Subdivision modifies how Subdivisions 165-B and 165-CB apply to a company that is:
 - (a) a *widely held company at all times during the income year (the test period); or
 - (b) an *eligible Division 166 company at all times during the income year (the test period); or
 - (c) a widely held company for a part of the income year and an eligible Division 166 company for the rest of the income year (the whole year being the test period).

Note 1: Subdivision 165-B is about when a company must calculate its taxable income and tax loss for the income year in a special way.
Subdivision 165-CB is about when a company must calculate its net capital gain and net capital loss for the income year in a special way.

Note 2: A company can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to it: see section 166-35.

Note 3: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

No corporate change etc.

(2) If:

(a) no *corporate change in the company *ends at any time in the *test period; or

(b) a corporate change in the company *ends during the test period, but there is *substantial continuity of ownership as between the start of the test period and immediately after the corporate change ends; the company is taken to have met the condition in paragraph 165-35(a) (which is about there being persons having *more than a 50% stake in it during the whole of the income year).

Note: See sections 166-145 and 166-175 to work out whether there is substantial continuity of ownership and a corporate change.

Corporate change

(3) If:

(a) a *corporate change in the company *ends at any time in the *test period; and

(b) there is no *substantial continuity of ownership as between the start of the test period and immediately after the corporate change ends;

then the company is taken to have failed to meet the condition in paragraph 165-35(a).

Satisfies the same business test

(4) However, if the company satisfies the *same business test for the rest of the income year (the same business test period) after the first time (the test time) in the *test period that a *corporate change in the company *ended, the company is taken to have satisfied the condition in paragraph 165-35(b).

Note 1: For the same business test, see Subdivision 165-E.

Note 2: Companies whose total income for the income year is more than $100 million cannot satisfy the same business test for the rest of the year: see section 165-212A.

Note 3: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

- (5) Apply the *same business test to the *business that the company carried on immediately before the *test time.

166-25 How to work out the taxable income, tax loss, net capital gain and net capital loss

- (1) If the company must calculate its taxable income and *tax loss for the income year under Subdivision 165-B, and its *net capital gain and *net capital loss under Subdivision 165-CB, then, in dividing the income year into periods, apply subsection (2) of this section instead of subsection 165-45(3).
- (2) The last period ends at the end of the income year. Each period (except the last) ends at the earlier of:
- (a) the earliest time when:
 - (i) a *corporate change in the company *ends; and
 - (ii) there is no *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and that time; or
 - (b) the earliest time when a person begins to control, or becomes able to control, the voting power in the company (whether directly, or indirectly through one or more interposed entities) for the purpose, or for purposes including the purpose, of:
 - (i) getting some benefit or advantage to do with how this Act applies; or
 - (ii) getting such a benefit or advantage for someone else.

Note: See sections 166-145 and 166-175 to work out whether there is substantial continuity of ownership and a corporate change.

166-35 Companies can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to them

- (1) The company can choose that Subdivisions 165-B and 165-CB are to apply to it for the income year without the modifications made by this Subdivision.

- (2) The company must choose on or before the day it lodges its *income tax return for the income year, or before a later day if the Commissioner allows.

 - (b) an *eligible Division 166 company at all times during the current year; or
 - (c) a widely held company for a part of the current year and an eligible Division 166 company for the rest of the current year.

Note 1: Subdivision 165-C is about the conditions a company must meet before it can deduct a bad debt.

Note 2: A company can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to it: see section 166-50.

Note 3: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete current years.

Meaning of test period

- (2) The company's test period is the period:
- (a) that begins at whichever of the following times the company chooses:
 - (i) the start of the income year in which the debt was incurred;
 - (ii) the start of the *first continuity period; and
 - (b) that ends at the end of the *second continuity period; and includes any intervening period.

Note: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

Substantial continuity of ownership

- (3) The company is taken to have met the conditions in section 165-123 (about the company maintaining the same owners) if there is *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and:
- (a) the end of each income year in that period; and
 - (b) the *end of each *corporate change in that period.

Note: See sections 166-145 and 166-175 to work out whether there is substantial continuity of ownership and a corporate change.

No substantial continuity of ownership

- (4) The company is taken to have failed to meet the conditions in section 165-123 if there is no *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and:
- (a) the end of an income year in that period; or
 - (b) the *end of a *corporate change in that period.

Satisfies the same business test

- (5) However, if the company satisfies the *same business test for the *second continuity period (the same business test period), it is taken to have satisfied the condition in section 165-126.

Note 1: For the same business test, see Subdivision 165-E.

Note 2: Companies whose total income for the income year is more than $100 million cannot satisfy the same business test for the second continuity period: see section 165-212A.

Note 3: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

- (6) Apply the *same business test to the *business that the company carried on immediately before the earlier of the following times (the test time):
- (a) the end of the first income year;
 - (b) the first time in the test period that a *corporate change in the company *ends;
- for which there is no *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and that time.

- (1) The company can choose that Subdivision 165-C is to apply to it for the income year without the modifications made by this Subdivision.

Table of sections

166-80	How Subdivision 165-CC or 165-CD applies to a widely held or eligible Division 166 company
166-90	Companies can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to them

166-80 How Subdivision 165-CC or 165-CD applies to a widely held or eligible Division 166 company

 - (a) Subdivision 165-CC applies in determining whether a changeover time (within the meaning of section 165-115C) has occurred; or
 - (b) Subdivision 165-CD applies in determining whether an alteration time (within the meaning of section 165-115L) has occurred;in relation to a company that is:

 - (d) an *eligible Division 166 company at all times during the income year; or
 - (e) a widely held company for a part of the income year and an eligible Division 166 company for the rest of the income year.

Note 1: Subdivision 165-CC is about the conditions a company that has an unrealised net loss must satisfy before it can have capital losses taken into account or deduct revenue losses. Subdivision 165-CD provides for reductions in cost bases and certain other reductions after alterations have occurred in the ownership or control of a loss company.

Note 2: A company can choose that this Subdivision is not to apply to it: see section 166-90.

Note 3: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete income years.

Note: See section 166-145 to work out whether there is substantial continuity of ownership.

No substantial continuity of ownership

- (4) Subsections (5) and (6) have effect if there is no *substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and the *test time.

Subdivision 166-D—Tests for finding out whether the widely held or eligible Division 166 company has maintained the same owners

Guide to Subdivision 166-D

166-135 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision has the tests to work out whether a widely held or eligible Division 166 company has maintained the same owners as between different times. (Subdivision 166-E has rules which make it easier for the company to satisfy these tests.)

This Subdivision also defines when there has been a corporate change in the company.

Table of sections

The ownership tests: substantial continuity of ownership

- 166-145 The ownership tests: substantial continuity of ownership
166-165 Relationship with rules in Division 165

Corporate change in a company

The ownership tests: substantial continuity of ownership

166-145 The ownership tests: substantial continuity of ownership

- (1) There is substantial continuity of ownership of the company as between the start of the *test period and another time in the test period if (and only if) the conditions in this section are met.

Voting power

- (2) There must be persons (none of them companies or trustees) who had *more than 50% of the voting power in the company at the start of the *test period. Also, those persons must have had *more than 50% of the voting power in the company immediately after the other time in the test period.

Note: To work out who had more than 50% of the voting power, see section 165-150.

Note: To work out who had rights to more than 50% of the company's capital distributions, see section 165-160.

When to apply the test

- (5) To work out whether a condition in this section was satisfied at a time (the ownership test time), apply the alternative test for that condition.

Note: For the alternative test, see subsections 165-150(2), 165-155(2) and 165-160(2).

Conditions in subsections (3) and (4) satisfied by non-profit and mutual companies

- (6) If the company is:
- (a) a *non-profit company; or
 - (b) a *mutual affiliate company; or
 - (c) a *mutual insurance company;
- during the whole of the *test period, the conditions in subsections (3) and (4) are taken to have been satisfied by the company.

166-165 Relationship with rules in Division 165

- (1) The provisions of Subdivision 165-D (other than section 165-165) apply for the purposes of the tests in section 166-145.
- (2) The following provisions apply for the purposes of the tests in section 166-145 as if the reference to a particular time were a reference to the *ownership test time:
- (a) section 165-180 (which is about arrangements affecting beneficial ownership of shares);
 - (b) subsection 165-185(2) (which treats some shares as never having carried rights);
 - (c) subsection 165-190(2) (which treats some shares as always having carried rights).

- (b) there is a scheme of arrangement, involving more than 50% of the company's shares, that has been approved by a court; or
- (c) there is any other arrangement, involving the acquisition of more than 50% of the company's shares, that is regulated under the Corporations Act 2001 or a *foreign law; or
- (d) there is an issue of *shares in the company that results in an increase of 20% or more in:
 - (i) the issued share capital of the company; or
 - (ii) the number of the company's shares on issue; or
- (e) there is a corporate change in another company which beneficially owns one or more of the following stakes in the first company:
 - (i) a *voting stake that carries rights to more than 50% of the voting power of the first company;
 - (ii) a *dividend stake that carries rights to receive more than 50% of any dividends the first company may pay;
 - (iii) a *capital stake that carries rights to receive more than 50% of any distribution of capital of the first company;(whether the other company owns those stakes directly, or *indirectly through one or more interposed entities).

When a corporate change ends

- (2) A *corporate change ends:
 - (a) if paragraph (1)(a) applies (or paragraph (1)(e) applies because of paragraph (1)(a))—at the latest time when a *bid period of the *takeover bid ends; and
 - (b) if paragraph (1)(b) or (c) applies (or paragraph (1)(e) applies because of paragraph (1)(b) or (c))—when the scheme of arrangement or other arrangement ends; and
 - (c) if paragraph (1)(d) applies (or paragraph (1)(e) applies because of paragraph (1)(d))—when the offer period for the issue of *shares ends.

Subdivision 166-E—Concessional tracing rules

Guide to Subdivision 166-E

166-215 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision has rules which make it easier for a widely held or eligible Division 166 company to satisfy the ownership tests in Subdivision 166-D.

Special concessional tracing rules deem entities to hold the following stakes in the company so that the company does not have to trace through to the beneficial owners of the stakes:

- (a) stakes of less than 10% in the company;
- (b) stakes of between 10% and 50% that are held by widely held companies;
- (c) stakes that are held by complying superannuation funds, complying approved deposit funds, special companies and managed investment schemes;
- (d) stakes in interposed foreign listed companies that are held as bearer shares;
- (e) stakes in interposed foreign listed companies that are held by depository entities.

Application of this Subdivision

166-220 Application of this Subdivision

This Subdivision applies to a company (the tested company) that is:

- (a) a *widely held company at all times during the income year;
or
- (b) an *eligible Division 166 company at all times during the income year; or
- (c) a widely held company for a part of the income year and an eligible Division 166 company for the rest of the income year.

Note: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete income years.

Stakes of less than 10% in the tested company

166-225 Direct stakes of less than 10% in the tested company

- (1) This section modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 are applied to the tested company if:

- (a) a *voting stake that carries rights to less than 10% of the voting power in the company is held directly in the company; or
- (b) a *dividend stake that carries the right to receive less than 10% of any dividends that the company may pay is held directly in the company; or
- (c) a *capital stake that carries the right to receive less than 10% of any distribution of capital of the company is held directly in the company.

Note: Other rules might affect this provision: see sections 166-270, 166-275 and 166-280.

Notional shareholder

- (2) The tests are applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time, a single notional entity:
 - (a) directly controlled the voting power that is carried by each such *voting stake; and
 - (b) had the right to receive, for its own benefit and directly:
 - (i) any *dividends the tested company may pay in respect of each such *dividend stake; and
 - (ii) any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of each such *capital stake; and
 - (c) were a person (other than a company).

Note: The persons who actually control the voting power and have rights to dividends and capital are taken not to control that power or have those rights: see section 166-265.

- (3) To avoid doubt, the single notional entity mentioned in subsection (2) is a different single notional entity from the one mentioned in section 165-207 and the one mentioned in section 166-255.

166-230 Indirect stakes of less than 10% in the tested company

- (1) This section modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 are applied to the tested company if it is the case, or it is reasonable to assume that:
 - (a) an entity (the stakeholder) indirectly holds any of these stakes in the tested company:

- (i) a *voting stake that carries rights to less than 10% of the voting power in the company; or
 - (ii) a *dividend stake that carries the right to receive less than 10% of any dividends that the company may pay; or
 - (iii) a *capital stake that carries the right to receive less than 10% of any distribution of capital of the company; and
- (b) either:
- (i) the stakeholder indirectly holds the stake in the tested company by holding *shares directly in a company (the top interposed entity) that is interposed between the stakeholder and the tested company; or
 - (ii) the stakeholder indirectly holds the stake in the tested company by holding another interest directly in an entity (the top interposed entity) that is not a company and that is interposed between the stakeholder and the tested company.

Note 1: There might also be other entities interposed between the top interposed entity and the tested company.

Note 2: Other rules might affect this provision: see subsection (3) and sections 166-272, 166-275 and 166-280.

Top interposed entity deemed to hold stakes directly in the tested company

- (2) The tests are applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time:
- (a) if the stake is a *voting stake—the top interposed entity controls, or is able to control, the voting power in the tested company that is carried by that stake at that time; and
 - (b) if the stake is a *dividend stake—the top interposed entity *indirectly had the right to receive, for its own benefit, any *dividends the tested company may pay in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (c) if the stake is a *capital stake—the top interposed entity indirectly had the right to receive, for its own benefit, any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (d) in any case—the top interposed entity were a person (other than a company).

Note: The persons who actually control the voting power and have rights to dividends and capital are taken not to control that power or have those rights: see section 166-265.

Acquisition of top interposed entity by another entity

- (3) If:
- (a) a new entity (the new interposed entity) acquires all the *shares or other interests in the top interposed entity (the old interposed entity); and
 - (b) the new interposed entity has the same classes of shares or other interests as the old interposed entity; and
 - (c) if the new interposed entity is a company—the shares are not *redeemable shares; and
 - (d) in any case—each stakeholder holds the same proportion of the total *voting stakes, *dividend stakes or *capital stakes in the new interposed entity immediately after the acquisition as the stakeholder held in the old interposed entity immediately before the acquisition;
- then, at all times that the old interposed entity held or is taken to have held a stake in the tested company, the new interposed entity is taken to have held that stake.
- (4) Except for the purposes of determining whether a time is an alteration time (within the meaning of section 165-115L), section 166-272 (which is about the same shares or interests) is to be disregarded when applying subsection (3).

166-235 Voting, dividend and capital stakes

Meaning of voting stake

- (1) An entity holds a voting stake in a company if:
- (a) the entity is the registered holder of *shares in the company; and
 - (b) the shares carry rights to exercise voting power in the company.
- (2) An entity (the stakeholder) also holds a voting stake in a company if:
- (a) one or more other entities are interposed between the company and the stakeholder; and

- (b) the stakeholder controls, or is able to control, voting power in the company indirectly through the interposed entity or entities.

Meaning of dividend stake

- (3) An entity holds a dividend stake in a company if:
 - (a) the entity is the registered holder of *shares in the company; and
 - (b) the shares carry rights to all or any *dividends that the company may pay.
- (4) An entity (the stakeholder) also holds a dividend stake in a company if:
 - (a) one or more other entities are interposed between the company and the stakeholder; and
 - (b) the stakeholder has the right to receive, for its own benefit and *indirectly through the interposed entity or entities, all or any *dividends that the company may pay.

Meaning of capital stake

- (5) An entity holds a capital stake in a company if:
 - (a) the entity is the registered holder of *shares in the company; and
 - (b) the shares carry rights to all or any of a distribution of capital of the company.
- (6) An entity (the stakeholder) also holds a capital stake in a company if:
 - (a) one or more other entities are interposed between the company and the stakeholder; and
 - (b) the stakeholder has the right to receive, for its own benefit and *indirectly through the interposed entity or entities, all or any of a distribution of capital of the company.

Stakes held by nominees

- (7) For the purposes of sections 166-225 and 166-230, if:
 - (a) an entity (the nominee entity) holds a *voting stake, a *dividend stake, or a *capital stake, in a company; and
 - (b) the nominee entity is itself a company; and

- (c) the nominee entity holds the stake as a nominee for more than one other entity;
- then, for each entity for whom a part of the stake is held by the nominee entity, that entity's part of the stake may be treated instead as a separate stake.

Stakes held directly and/or indirectly by widely held companies

166-240 Stakes held directly and/or indirectly by widely held companies

- (1) This section modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 are applied to the tested company if a *widely held company directly or indirectly (through one or more interposed entities), or both directly and indirectly, holds any of the following:
 - (a) a *voting stake that carries rights to between 10% and 50% (inclusive) of the voting power in the company;
 - (b) a *dividend stake that carries the right to receive between 10% and 50% (inclusive) of any dividends that the company may pay;
 - (c) a *capital stake that carries the right to receive between 10% and 50% (inclusive) of any distribution of capital of the company.
- Note: Other rules might affect this provision: see subsections (3) and (4) and sections 166-272, 166-275 and 166-280.
- (2) The tests are applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time:
 - (a) if the stake is a *voting stake—the *widely held company controls, or is able to control, the voting power in the tested company that is carried by that stake at that time; and
 - (b) if the stake is a *dividend stake—the widely held company had the right to receive (whether directly or *indirectly), for its own benefit, any *dividends the tested company may pay in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (c) if the stake is a *capital stake—the widely held company had the right to receive (whether directly or indirectly), for its own benefit, any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (d) in any case—the widely held company were a person (other than a company).

Note: The persons who actually control the voting power and have rights to dividends and capital are taken not to control that power or have those rights: see section 166-265.

Exception

- (3) This section does not apply in respect of a *widely held company if the company is not a widely held company for the whole income year in which the *ownership test time occurs.

Note: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete periods.

Acquisition of widely held company by another entity

- (4) If:
- (a) a new company acquires all the *shares in the *widely held company; and
 - (b) immediately before the acquisition, the shares in the widely held company were listed for quotation in the official list of an *approved stock exchange; and
 - (c) immediately after the acquisition, the shares in the new company are listed for quotation in the official list of an approved stock exchange; and
 - (d) the new company has the same classes of shares (not being *redeemable shares) as the widely held company; and
 - (e) each entity that held stakes in the widely held company immediately before the acquisition holds the same proportion of the total *voting stakes, *dividend stakes or *capital stakes in the new company immediately after the acquisition as the entity held in the widely held company immediately before the acquisition;
- then, at all times that the widely held company held or is taken to have held a stake in the tested company, the new company is taken to have held that stake.
- (5) Except for the purposes of determining whether a time is an alteration time (within the meaning of section 165-115L), section 166-272 (which is about same shares or interests) is to be disregarded when applying subsection (4).

166-245 Stakes held by other entities

- (1) This section modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 are applied to the tested company if:
- (a) an entity mentioned in subsection (2) directly or indirectly (through one or more interposed entities) holds a *voting stake, a *dividend stake or a *capital stake in the company; and
 - (b) neither the entity nor another entity has, under section 166-225, 166-230 or 166-240, been taken to control voting power or have rights in respect of the stake; and
 - (c) the entity mentioned in subsection (2) satisfies the condition in subsection (3).

Note: Other rules might affect this provision: see sections 166-272, 166-275 and 166-280.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), these are the entities:
- (a) a *superannuation fund; and
 - (b) an *approved deposit fund; and
 - (c) a *special company; and
 - (d) a *managed investment scheme; and
 - (e) any other entity, or entity of a kind, prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), an entity satisfies the condition in this subsection if at all times during the income year of the tested company in which the *ownership test time occurs:
- (a) if the entity is a *superannuation fund:
 - (i) the fund is a *complying superannuation fund; or
 - (ii) the fund is a superannuation fund that is established in a foreign country and is regulated under a *foreign law; or
 - (b) if the entity is an *approved deposit fund—the fund is a *complying approved deposit fund; or
 - (c) if the entity is a *special company—the company is a special company; or
 - (d) if the entity is a *managed investment scheme:
 - (i) the scheme is registered under the Corporations Act 2001; or

- (ii) the entity is recognised, under a *foreign law relating to corporate regulation, as an entity with a similar status to a managed investment scheme; or
- (e) if the entity is an entity, or an entity of a kind, prescribed by the regulations—the entity meets any conditions prescribed by the regulations.

Note: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete periods.

If the entity has 10 members or fewer

- (4) If the entity has 10 *members or fewer, the tests are applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time:
 - (a) if the stake is a *voting stake—each member controls, or is able to control, an equal proportion of the voting power in the tested company that is carried by that stake at that time; and
 - (b) if the stake is a *dividend stake—each member had the right to receive (whether directly or *indirectly), for its own benefit, an equal proportion of any *dividends the tested company may pay in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (c) if the stake is a *capital stake—each member had the right to receive (whether directly or indirectly), for its own benefit, an equal proportion of any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (d) in any case—each member were a person (other than a company or a trustee).

Note 1: If each member's proportion of the voting power, the dividends or the distributions is less than 10%, then subsections (5) and (6) apply instead.

Note 2: The persons who actually control the voting power and have rights to dividends and capital are taken not to control that power or have those rights: see section 166-265.

If the entity has more than 10 members etc.

- (5) The ownership tests are applied as set out in subsection (6) if:
 - (a) the entity has more than 10 *members; or
 - (b) under subsection (4):
 - (i) the proportion of the voting power in the company that each member controls, or is able to control, is less than 10% of the total voting power; or

- (ii) the proportion of the *dividends that the tested company may pay for the benefit of each member is less than 10% of the total dividends; or
 - (iii) the proportion of the distributions of capital that the tested company may pay for the benefit of each member is less than 10% of the total distributions.
- (6) The ownership tests are applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time:
- (a) if the stake is a *voting stake—the entity controls, or is able to control, the voting power in the tested company that is carried by that stake at that time; and
 - (b) if the stake is a *dividend stake—the entity had the right to receive (whether directly or *indirectly), for its own benefit, any *dividends the tested company may pay in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (c) if the stake is a *capital stake—the entity had the right to receive (whether directly or indirectly), for its own benefit, any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of that stake at that time; and
 - (d) in any case—the entity were a person (other than a company or a trustee).

Note: The persons who actually control the voting power and have rights to dividends and capital are taken not to control that power or have those rights: see section 166-265.

When identity of foreign stakeholders is not known

166-255 Bearer shares in foreign listed companies

- (1) This section modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 are applied to the tested company if:
- (a) at the *ownership test time, it is the case, or it is reasonable to assume, that persons (none of them companies or trustees) hold a *voting stake, a *dividend stake or a *capital stake in the tested company; and
 - (b) an entity has not, under section 166-225, 166-230, 166-240 or 166-245, been taken to control voting power or have rights in respect of the stake; and

- (c) another company (the foreign listed company) is interposed, at that time, between those persons and the tested company; and
- (d) at all times during the income year of the tested company in which the ownership test time occurs, the *principal class of shares in the foreign listed company is listed for quotation in the official list of an *approved stock exchange; and
- (e) at the ownership test time:
 - (i) voting stakes that carry rights to 50% or more of the voting power in the foreign listed company; or
 - (ii) dividend stakes that carry rights to receive 50% or more of any dividends that the foreign listed company may pay; or
 - (iii) capital stakes that carry rights to receive 50% or more of any distribution of capital of the foreign listed company; as the case requires, are directly held by way of bearer shares; and
- (f) the beneficial owners of some or all of those bearer shares have not been disclosed to the foreign listed company.

Note 1: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

Note 2: Other rules might affect this provision: see sections 166-270, 166-275 and 166-280.

- (2) The tests are applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time, for each of those bearer shares whose owners have not been disclosed:
 - (a) a single notional entity controls, or is able to control, the voting power in the tested company that is carried by those shares at that time; and
 - (b) the entity *indirectly had the right to receive, for its own benefit:
 - (i) any *dividends the tested company may pay in respect of those shares at that time; and
 - (ii) any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of those shares at that time; and
 - (c) the entity were a person (other than a company).

Note: The persons who actually control the voting power and have rights to dividends and capital are taken not to control that power or have those rights: see section 166-265.

- (3) To avoid doubt, the single notional entity mentioned in subsection (2) is a different single notional entity from the one mentioned in section 165-207 and the one mentioned in section 166-225.

166-260 Depository entities holding stakes in foreign listed companies

- (1) This section modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 are applied to the tested company if:
- (a) at the *ownership test time, it is the case, or it is reasonable to assume, that persons (none of them companies or trustees) have a *voting stake, a *dividend stake or a *capital stake in the tested company; and
 - (b) an entity has not, under section 166-225, 166-230, 166-240, 166-245 or 166-255, been taken to control voting power or have rights in respect of the stake; and
 - (c) another company (the foreign listed company) is interposed, at that time, between those persons and the tested company; and
 - (d) at all times during the income year of the tested company in which the ownership test time occurs, the *principal class of shares in the foreign listed company is listed for quotation in the official list of an *approved stock exchange; and
 - (e) at the ownership test time:
 - (i) voting stakes that carry rights to 50% or more of the voting power in the foreign listed company; or
 - (ii) dividend stakes that carry rights to receive 50% or more of any dividends that the foreign listed company may pay; or
 - (iii) capital stakes that carry rights to receive 50% or more of any distribution of capital of the foreign listed company; as the case requires, are directly held by one or more *depository entities (see subsection (3)); and
 - (f) a law of a foreign country, or a part of a foreign country, in which the approved stock exchange is located, prevents the disclosure of the beneficial owners of some or all of those shares that are held by the depository entities; and

- (g) the beneficial owners of some or all of the shares held by the depository entities have not been disclosed to the foreign listed company.

Note 1: See section 165-255 for the rule about incomplete test periods.

Note 2: This rule might not apply in all circumstances: see sections 166-275 and 166-280.

- (2) The tests are applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time, for each of those *shares held by a *depository entity whose owners have not been disclosed, the depository entity:

- (a) controls, or is able to control, the voting power in the tested company that is carried by those shares at that time; and
- (b) *indirectly had the right to receive, for its own benefit:
- (i) any *dividends the tested company may pay in respect of those shares at that time; and
- (ii) any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of those shares at that time; and
- (c) were a person (other than a company).

Note: The persons who actually control the voting power and have rights to dividends and capital are taken not to control that power or have those rights: see section 166-265.

- (3) If the effect of subsection (2) is that the *depository entity is taken to hold:

- (a) a *voting stake that carries rights to less than 10% of the voting power in the tested company; or
- (b) a *dividend stake that carries the right to receive less than 10% of any dividends that the tested company may pay; or
- (c) a *capital stake that carries the right to receive less than 10% of any distribution of capital of the tested company;

then neither section 166-225 nor section 166-230 applies in respect of that stake.

- (4) If the *depository entity (the old depository entity) is subsequently replaced by another depository entity (the new depository entity), then, at all times that the old depository entity held or is taken to have held a stake in the tested company, the new entity is taken to have held that stake.

- (5) A depository entity is an entity:

- (a) that is a central securities repository; and

- (b) that provides custody of share certificates; and
- (c) that provides services for the exchange of shares.

Other rules relating to voting power and rights

166-265 Persons who actually control voting power or have rights are taken not to control power or have rights

If any of sections 166-225, 166-230, 166-240, 166-245, 166-255 or 166-260 apply, the ownership tests in section 166-145 are also applied to the tested company as if, at the *ownership test time:

- (a) the persons who control, or are able to control, the voting power in the tested company (whether directly, or indirectly through one or more interposed entities) that is carried by each *voting stake in the tested company mentioned in that section had not had that control; and
- (b) the persons who have the right to receive for their own benefit (whether directly, or *indirectly through one or more interposed entities):
 - (i) any *dividends that the tested company may pay in respect of each *dividend stake in the tested company mentioned in that section; and
 - (ii) any distributions of capital of the tested company in respect of each *capital stake in the tested company mentioned in that section;had not had that right.

166-270 Single notional entity stakeholders taken to have minimum voting control, dividend rights and capital rights

Minimum control of voting power

- (1) If:
 - (a) the *ownership test time is after the start of the *test period; and
 - (b) a single notional entity mentioned in section 166-225 or 166-255 has voting power in a company; and
 - (c) the voting power that the entity has at the ownership test time is greater than the voting power that the entity had at the start of the test period;

then the entity is taken to have voting power in the company at the ownership test time only to the extent that it had it at the start of the test period.

Minimum percentage of rights to dividends and capital

(2) If:

- (a) the *ownership test time is after the start of the *test period; and
- (b) a single notional entity mentioned in section 166-225 or 166-255 has a percentage of rights to the *dividends or distributions of capital of a company; and
- (c) the percentage that the entity has rights to at the ownership test time is greater than the percentage (the lower percentage) of the dividends or distributions of capital of the company that the entity had rights to at the start of the test period;

then the entity is taken to have rights to the lower percentage of the dividends or distributions of capital at the ownership test time.

166-272 Same shares or interests to be held

Application

- (1) This section modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 are applied to a *voting stake, a *dividend stake or a *capital stake in the tested company held by one of the following entities (the stakeholder):
 - (a) a top interposed entity mentioned in section 166-230 (which is about indirect stakes of less than 10%);
 - (b) a *widely held company mentioned in section 166-240;
 - (c) an entity mentioned in subsection 166-245(2) (which is about stakes held by other entities);
 - (d) a *depository entity mentioned in section 166-260;(whether directly, or *indirectly through one or more interposed entities).

Exactly the same shares or interests must continue to be held

- (2) For the purpose of determining whether the tested company has satisfied a condition or whether a time is a changeover time or an alteration time in respect of the tested company:
- (a) a condition that has to be satisfied is not satisfied; or
 - (b) a time that, apart from this subsection, would not be a changeover time or alteration time is taken to be a changeover time or alteration time, as the case may be;
- unless, at all relevant times:
- (c) the only *shares in the tested company that are taken into account are exactly the same shares and are held by the same persons; and
 - (d) the only interests (including shares) in any other entity that is interposed between the stakeholder and the tested company that are taken into account are exactly the same interests and are held by the same persons.

What happens in case of share splitting

- (3) If:
- (a) a particular *share (an old share) in a company of which the stakeholder, or an entity interposed between the stakeholder and the tested company, is the holder at the start of the *test period is divided into 2 or more new shares during that period; and
 - (b) the stakeholder or entity becomes the holder of each of the new shares immediately after the division takes place and remains the holder until the end of that period;

What happens in case of consolidation of shares

- (5) If:
 - (a) a particular *share (an old share) in a company of which the stakeholder, or an entity interposed between the stakeholder and the tested company, is the holder at the start of the *test period, and other shares (each of which is also called an old share) in the company of which the stakeholder or entity is the holder at the start of that period, are consolidated into a new share during that period; and

 - (a) the total voting power in the tested company; or
 - (b) the total dividends that the tested company may pay; or
 - (c) the total distributions of capital of the tested company.

Conditions in section 166-145 may be treated as having been satisfied in certain circumstances

- (8) If any of the conditions in section 166-145 have not been satisfied, those conditions are taken to have been satisfied if:
- (a) they would have been satisfied except for the operation of subsection (2) of this section; and
 - (b) the tested company has information from which it would be reasonable to conclude that less than 50% of:
 - (i) the *tax loss; or
 - (ii) the *notional loss; or

Note: See subsection (11) for the definitions of direct equity interests and indirect equity interests.

Subsection (8) not to apply for purpose of determining whether an alteration time has occurred

- (9) However, subsection (8) does not apply in relation to any of the conditions in section 166-145 in so far as those conditions have effect for the purpose of determining whether an alteration time (within the meaning of section 165-115L) has occurred.

Time of happening of CGT event

- (10) The happening of any *CGT event in relation to a direct or indirect equity interest in the tested company that results in the failure of the tested company to satisfy a condition in section 166-145 is taken, for the purposes of paragraph (8)(b), to have occurred during the *test period.

Note: See subsection (11) for the definitions of direct equity interests and indirect equity interests.

 - (b) the indirect equity interests in the tested company are shares or other interests in entities interposed between the tested company and stakeholder.

When the rules in this Subdivision do not apply

166-275 Rules in this Subdivision intended to be concessional

A company is taken to have met the conditions in section 165-12, paragraph 165-35(a) or section 165-123, or a changeover time or an alteration time is taken not to have occurred in respect of a company, (as the case requires), if:

- (a) a *tracing rule modifies how the ownership tests in section 166-145 apply to the tested company in respect of a *voting stake, a *dividend stake or a *capital stake; and
- (b) the company fails the tests (whether at the time of applying the tracing rule or at another time); and
- (c) the company believes, on reasonable grounds, that if the tracing rule did not modify how the tests apply to the company in respect of that stake, it would not fail the tests.

Example: 11 people own shareholdings of 9% in the listed company. Under section 166-225, one notional shareholder is deemed to hold all of those shareholdings. 2 of the people sell their shareholdings so that 9 of the original 11 people now own shareholdings of 11%. Without the rule in this section, the company would fail the ownership tests (as the rule in section 166-225 no longer applies).

166-280 Controlled test companies

- (1) A *tracing rule does not modify how the ownership tests in section 166-145 apply to the tested company in respect of all or part of the voting power in the tested company, or all or some of the rights to *dividends of, or capital in, the tested company, if:
- (a) either:
 - (i) an entity (the controlling entity) directly holds that power or has those rights; or

- (ii) an entity (the controlling entity) indirectly holds that power or has those rights through one or more interposed entities; and
- (b) the tested company is sufficiently influenced (within the meaning of paragraph 318(6)(b) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) by the controlling entity.

Note: However, a tracing rule can modify how the ownership tests in section 166-145 apply to the tested company in respect of voting power or dividend or capital rights held by entities other than controlling entities.

- (2) A *tracing rule does not modify how the ownership tests in section 166-145 apply to the tested company in respect of all or part of the voting power in the tested company if:
 - (a) the tested company is a *widely held company; and
 - (b) that voting power:
 - (i) is more than 25% of the total voting power in the tested company and is controlled (whether directly, or indirectly through one or more interposed entities) by a natural person, together with his or her *associates; or
 - (ii) is more than 50% of the total voting power in the tested company and is controlled (whether directly, or indirectly through one or more interposed entities) by a trustee or company, together with its associates.

Subdivision 802-A—Conduit foreign income

Guide to Subdivision 802-A

802-5 What this Subdivision is about

A distribution that an Australian corporate tax entity makes to a foreign resident is not subject to dividend withholding tax, and is not assessable income, to the extent that the entity declares it to be conduit foreign income.

An Australian corporate tax entity has an amount that is non-assessable non-exempt income if it receives a distribution including conduit foreign income from another such entity and it makes a distribution including conduit foreign income.

This Subdivision sets out the method of working out an entity's conduit foreign income.

It also discourages streaming of distributions to entities that can take advantage of the receipt of conduit foreign income.

Operative provisions

802-10 Objects

The objects of this Subdivision are:

- (a) to encourage the establishment in Australia of regional holding companies for foreign groups; and
- (b) to improve Australia's attractiveness as a continuing base for its multinational companies;

by providing relief from tax on *distributions by *Australian corporate tax entities to *members who are foreign residents or other Australian corporate tax entities if those distributions relate to *conduit foreign income.

802-15 Foreign residents—exempting CFI from Australian tax

- (1) So much of the *unfranked part of a *frankable distribution made by an *Australian corporate tax entity that the entity declares, in its *distribution statement, to be *conduit foreign income:
 - (a) is not assessable income and is not *exempt income of a foreign resident; and
 - (b) is an amount to which section 128B (Liability to withholding tax) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 does not apply.

- (2) The declaration must be made on or before the day on which the *distribution is made.

Note: For a private company, this rule may bring forward the time at which the company is required to make its distribution statement: see section 202-75.

802-20 Distributions between Australian corporate tax entities—non-assessable non-exempt income

- (1) An *Australian corporate tax entity (the receiving entity) has an amount that is not assessable income and is not *exempt income for an income year if:
- (a) it receives from another Australian corporate tax entity a *frankable distribution that has an *unfranked part; and
 - (b) the *distribution statement for the *distribution declares an amount (a received CFI amount) of the unfranked part to be *conduit foreign income; and
 - (c) the receiving entity, after the start of the income year but before the due day for lodging its *income tax return for that income year:
 - (i) makes a frankable distribution that has an unfranked part; and
 - (ii) declares an amount (a declared CFI amount) of the unfranked part to be conduit foreign income.
- (2) The amount that is not assessable income and is not *exempt income is the lesser of:
- (a) the sum of the received CFI amounts that the receiving entity receives during the income year (the total received CFI amounts); and
 - (b) the amount worked out using this formula:

$$\text{Total received CFI amounts} \times \frac{\text{Total declared CFI amounts}}{\text{Total received CFI amounts} - \text{Related expenses}}$$ where:

related expenses means the receiving entity's expenses that are reasonably related to the total received CFI amounts.

total declared CFI amounts means the sum of the declared CFI amounts in distributions made by the receiving entity before the due day for lodging its *income tax return for the income year.

Example: AusCo 1 and AusCo 2 are both Australian corporate tax entities.

AusCo 1 pays an unfranked dividend of $80 to AusCo 2. AusCo 1 declares all of the $80 to be its conduit foreign income (so the $80 is a received CFI amount).

AusCo 2 has $5 of deductible expenses relating to the $80 dividend.

AusCo 2 pays an unfranked dividend of $30. AusCo 2 declares $15 of the $30 to be conduit foreign income (so the $15 is a declared CFI amount).

The amount that is not assessable income and is not exempt income for AusCo 2 (assuming there are no other received CFI amounts or declared CFI amounts) is:

$$$80 \times \frac{$15}{$75} = $16$$

The remaining $64 is included in AusCo 2's assessable income and it can deduct $4 (the part of the expenses related to the $64).

- (3) If the receiving entity's expenses that are reasonably related to the total received CFI amounts equal or exceed the total received CFI amounts for an income year, the total received CFI amounts is not assessable income and is not *exempt income of the receiving entity for the income year.
- (4) If a declared CFI amount is taken into account in working out an amount of *non-assessable non-exempt income of an entity for an income year, that amount cannot be taken into account for the entity for a later income year.
- (5) Work out how much *conduit foreign income in a *frankable distribution flows through a trust or a partnership in the same way that you work out the *share of a *franking credit on a *franked distribution that flows through a trust or a partnership. That amount is treated as a received CFI amount under this section.

Note: See sections 207-50, 207-55 and 207-57 for the share of a franking credit on a franked distribution that flows through a trust or a partnership.

802-25 Conduit foreign income of an Australian corporate tax entity

An *Australian corporate tax entity's conduit foreign income at a particular time (the relevant time) is worked out by applying sections 802-30 to 802-55.

Note: Subdivision 715-U modifies the single entity and the entry history rule for the purposes of working out conduit foreign income for consolidated groups and MEC groups.

802-30 Foreign source income amounts

- (1) Work out the amount of the entity's *ordinary income and *statutory income derived by the entity that has been, is or will be included in an income statement or similar statement of the entity or of another entity and that would not be included in the entity's assessable income if the entity:
 - (a) for a company or a *corporate limited partnership—were a foreign resident at the relevant time; or
 - (b) for a *corporate unit trust or *public trading trust—were not a *resident unit trust for the income year in which the relevant time occurs.
- Note: Income statements are prepared under the Framework for the Preparation and Presentation of Financial Statements (which is referred to in the Australian Accounting Standards).
- (2) Reduce the subsection (1) amount by any part of that amount that is or will be included in the entity's assessable income (apart from section 802-20).
- (3) Add to the amount remaining after subsection (2) these amounts:
 - (a) if the entity receives from another *Australian corporate tax entity a *frankable distribution that has an *unfranked part—any amount declared in the *distribution statement for that *distribution to be *conduit foreign income;
 - (b) an amount that is treated as a received CFI amount for the purposes of section 802-20 because of subsection 802-20(5);
 - (c) an amount that is *non-assessable non-exempt income under section 23AJ of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 and that would be not be included under subsection (1).
- (4) Reduce the amount remaining after subsection (3) by these amounts:

- (a) an amount that is *non-assessable non-exempt income under section 23AI or 23AK of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936;
- (b) an amount that is not included in the entity's assessable income because of the operation of paragraph 99B(2)(e) of that Act;
- (c) the amount worked out using the formula:

$$\text{Available franking credit} \times \frac{(1 - \text{*General company tax rate})}{\text{General company tax rate}}$$

where:

available franking credit means any part of the amount remaining after subsection (3) to the extent to which a *franking credit arises or will arise for the entity.

- (5) Reduce the amount remaining after subsection (4) by any of the entity's expenses that are reasonably related to that amount, except expenses the entity has deducted or can deduct under this Act. In applying this subsection to an amount covered by paragraph (3)(a), assume that amount is *non-assessable non-exempt income.
- (6) The result is an amount included in the entity's conduit foreign income.
- (7) This section applies to an entity as if it had derived an amount if the amount has been applied for its benefit (including by discharging all or part of a debt it owes) or as it directs.

802-35 Capital gains and losses

Capital gains

- (1) The entity's conduit foreign income includes these amounts:
 - (a) the amount by which a *capital gain of the entity is reduced because of the operation of section 768-505;
 - (b) a capital gain that is disregarded because of the operation of subsection 23AH(3) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936;
 - (c) the amount of a capital gain that is disregarded as a result of the operation of an international tax sharing treaty (as defined in subsection 136AA(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936).

Capital losses

- (2) The entity's conduit foreign income is reduced by these amounts:
- (a) the amount by which a *capital loss of the entity is reduced because of the operation of section 768-505;
 - (b) a capital loss that is disregarded because of the operation of subsection 23AH(4) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936;
 - (c) the amount of a capital loss that is disregarded as a result of the operation of an international tax sharing treaty (as defined in subsection 136AA(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936).

Timing rule

- (3) The adjustments are made under this section at the end of the income year in which the *CGT event occurred.

802-40 Effect of foreign tax credits on conduit foreign income

The entity's conduit foreign income includes an amount if a credit arose for the entity under section 160AF of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 for the income year immediately before the one in which the relevant time occurs. The amount is worked out using the formula:

$$\text{Credit} \times \frac{(1 - \text{*General company tax rate})}{\text{General company tax rate}}$$

802-45 Previous declarations of conduit foreign income

The entity's conduit foreign income is reduced if:

- (a) the entity makes a *frankable distribution that has an *unfranked part; and
- (b) the entity declares an amount of the unfranked part to be conduit foreign income.

The amount of the reduction is the amount so declared.

Note: If the amount declared is less than the amount available for declaration, the difference is available for a later declaration.

802-50 Receipt of an unfranked distribution from another Australian corporate tax entity

- (1) The entity's conduit foreign income is reduced if:
 - (a) the entity (the receiving entity) receives from another *Australian corporate tax entity a *frankable distribution that has an *unfranked part; and
 - (b) the *distribution statement for the *distribution declares an amount (the declared amount) of the unfranked part to be conduit foreign income; and
 - (c) some or all of the declared amount is not *non-assessable non-exempt income under section 802-20.
- (2) The amount of the reduction is the amount that is not *non-assessable non-exempt income under section 802-20 less any expenses reasonably related to that amount.

802-55 No double benefits

An amount cannot be both:

- (a) an unfranked non-portfolio dividend credit for an entity under section 46FB of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936; and
- (b) counted towards:
 - (i) the entity's *conduit foreign income; and
 - (ii) the entity's *non-assessable non-exempt income under section 802-20.

802-60 No streaming of distributions

- (1) Subsection (2) has effect if:
 - (a) an *Australian corporate tax entity makes one or more *frankable distributions in a *franking period; and
 - (b) at least one of the *distributions has an *unfranked part; and
 - (c) the entity declares an amount of the unfranked part to be *conduit foreign income.
 - (2) If the entity does not, for that *franking period, declare the same proportion of *conduit foreign income for all *membership interests and *non-share equity interests then, instead of the amount that it declared to be conduit foreign income on those *distributions, it is taken to have declared under section 802-45 the greater amount that it would have declared had it declared that same proportion on all those distributions.

Note: Breaching subsection (2) may make the entity subject to a penalty under section 288-80 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (about over declaring conduit foreign income).

Example: There are 10,000 membership interests in AusCo Limited, 7,500 held by foreign residents and 2,500 held by Australian residents. It has $1,800 of conduit foreign income.

AusCo makes an unfranked distribution of 50 cents per membership interest to all of its members. It declares $1,500 of the distribution to be conduit foreign income for its 7,500 foreign membership interests (20 cents per membership interest or 40% of each distribution) and none for its Australian membership interests.

AusCo is taken to have declared the same proportion (40% of each distribution) of conduit foreign income for its Australian membership interests (which amounts to $500 of conduit foreign income). It is therefore taken to have declared $2,000 of conduit foreign income. This is an over-declaration of $200 and a penalty under section 288-80 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 will apply.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), ignore *membership interests and *non-share equity interests that do not carry a right to receive *distributions (other than distributions on winding up).
- (4) Despite subsection (2), an entity that receives a *frankable distribution that has an *unfranked part is entitled to rely on the *distribution statement made by the entity that made the distribution.

(a) a taxpayer acquires:

- (i) shares in a company (the new company) that can reasonably be regarded as matching shares in another company (the old company) that the taxpayer had acquired under a scheme for the acquisition of shares by employees; or
- (ii) rights to acquire shares in a company (the new company) that can reasonably be regarded as matching rights in another company (the old company) that the taxpayer had acquired under a scheme for the acquisition of shares by employees; and

(b) the acquisition occurs in connection with a 100% takeover, or a restructure, of the old company; and

(c) as a result of the takeover or restructure, the taxpayer ceased to hold the shares or rights in the old company;

then, if the conditions in subsections (3) to (5) are met, the matching shares or rights are treated, for the purposes of section 26AAC, as if they were a continuation of the shares or rights in the old company.

Note: In determining to what extent something can reasonably be regarded as matching shares or rights in the old company, one of the factors to consider is the respective market values of that thing and of those shares or rights.

Treating acquisitions as disposals of existing shares etc.

- (2) However, to the extent that, in connection with the takeover or restructure, the taxpayer acquires anything that:
- (a) can reasonably be regarded as matching any shares or rights in the old company that the taxpayer had acquired under a scheme for the acquisition of shares by employees; but
 - (b) is not a matching share or right to which subsection (1) applies;
- the taxpayer is treated, for the purposes of section 26AAC, as having disposed of shares, or disposed of rights (other than by exercising them), that the taxpayer held, under a scheme for the acquisition of shares by employees, in the old company immediately before the takeover or restructure.

- (4) The second condition is that:
- (a) to the extent that the matching shares or rights are shares, they are ordinary shares; or
 - (b) to the extent that the matching shares or rights are rights, they are rights to acquire ordinary shares.
- (5) The third condition is that the matching shares or rights are subject to:
- (a) the same conditions or restrictions as; or
 - (b) conditions or restrictions that have the same effect as;
- the conditions or restrictions (if any) that attached to the shares or rights in the old company that they can reasonably be regarded as matching.

Apportionment rules

- (6) If:
- (a) subsection (1) applies to shares or rights that the taxpayer has acquired; and
 - (b) the taxpayer had paid or given consideration (the original consideration) for an acquisition, under a scheme for the acquisition of shares by employees, of any of the shares or rights in the old company (the original shares or rights);
- the taxpayer is treated as having paid or given, for any of the apportionable assets for the original shares or rights, consideration of an amount worked out by spreading the original consideration proportionately among all the apportionable assets according to their market values immediately after the takeover or restructure.
- (7) The apportionable assets for the original shares or rights are:
- (a) all matching shares or rights held by the taxpayer that are treated because of this section as a continuation of the original shares or rights; and
 - (b) anything else that the taxpayer acquired in connection with the takeover or restructure and that can reasonably be regarded as matching the original shares or rights; and
 - (c) in the case of a restructure—any shares or rights in the old company that the taxpayer held immediately before, and continues to hold immediately after, the restructure and that can reasonably be regarded as matching the original shares or rights.
