Division 1—Amendments

A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999

6 Before section 57F

Insert:

57EA Eligibility for child care tax rebate—for a quarter

- (1) An individual is eligible for child care tax rebate for a quarter in respect of a child if:
 - (a) a determination is in force:
 - (i) under section 50F of the Family Assistance Administration Act; and
 - (ii) during at least one week that falls wholly or partly in the quarter; to the effect that the individual is conditionally eligible for child care benefit by fee reduction in respect of the child; and
 - (b) one or more sessions of care are provided by one or more approved child care services to the child during the week; and
 - (c) under Subdivision G of Division 4, one or more of the following is the weekly limit of hours applicable to the individual in the week:
 - (i) the 50 hour limit (see section 54);
 - (ii) the more than 50 hour limit (see section 55);
 - (iii) the 24 hour care limit under section 56; and
 - (d) the Secretary has calculated an amount of fee reduction under subsection 50Z(1) of the Family Assistance Administration Act in respect of the individual and the child for at least one of those sessions of care provided in the week; and
 - (e) the amount referred to in paragraph (d) is:
 - (i) an amount greater than a nil amount; or
 - (ii) a nil amount because the CCB % applicable to the individual is zero %.

Schedule 2 Election commitments

Part 2 Paying child care tax rebate quarterly

Note 1: If one of the paragraph (c) limits applies, the individual satisfies the paragraph (c) condition, even if the individual has not used child care for the child during the week up to the full extent of the limit.

Note 2: For the purposes of paragraph (d), it does not matter if the amount is later recalculated under subsection 50ZA(1) of the Family Assistance Administration Act.

(2) If:

(a) a limit mentioned in paragraph (1)(c) does not apply under a determination in force under section 50H of the Family Assistance Administration Act for the individual and the child in the week; but

(b) the circumstances in which such a limit applies were applicable to the individual in that week;

then that limit is taken, for the purposes of that paragraph, to be the weekly limit of hours applicable to the individual in the week.

Note: If the only limit applicable to the individual in the week was the limit of 24 hours under subsection 53(3), then the condition in paragraph (1)(c) will not be satisfied.

(3) The 50 hour limit is taken, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), to be applicable to the individual in the week if it would have been applicable to the individual in the week but for the fact that the individual failed to meet the requirements of paragraph 17A(1)(b) in relation to the week.

Note: The heading to section 57F is altered by adding at the end “—for an income year”.

Subdivision A—Child care tax rebate for a quarter

84AA Amount of the child care tax rebate—for a quarter

If the Secretary must, under subsection 65EAA(1) of the Family Assistance Administration Act, calculate the amount of child care tax rebate applicable in respect of an individual and a child for a quarter in an income year, the amount is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the total amount of the individual's approved child care fees for the child in each base week for the individual and the child in the quarter.
- Step 2. Work out the total amount (if any) of so much of the fee reductions:
- (a) calculated under subsection 50Z(1) of the Family Assistance Administration Act; or
 - (b) recalculated under subsection 50ZA(1) of that Act;
- in respect of the individual and the child as are attributable to each base week in the quarter.
- Step 3. Work out the total amount of Jobs Education and Training (JET) Child Care fee assistance (if any) that the individual is eligible to receive for the child in each base week for the individual and the child in the quarter.
- Step 4. Work out the lesser of the following amounts for the child:
- (a) the amount worked out using the formula:
$$50\% \times \left(\text{Step 1 amount} - \text{Step 2 amount} - \text{Step 3 amount} \right)$$
 - (b) the amount worked out by subtracting the total of the child care tax rebate (if any) applicable in respect of the individual and the child for each earlier quarter in the income year from the child care tax rebate limit for the income year.
- Step 5. The result is the amount of the individual's child care tax rebate for the child for the quarter.

84AB Component of formula—approved child care fees

General rule—approved child care fees for a base week for an individual and a child

- (1) For the purposes of section 84AA, the amount of an individual's approved child care fees for a child in a base week for the individual and the child is the amount of fees for which:
 - (a) the individual; or
 - (b) the individual's partner during the week;is liable for care provided by an approved child care service or services for the child during the week. For this purpose, disregard the weekly limit of hours applicable to the individual in the week.

Special rule if the week is also a base week for the individual's partner for the child

- (2) However, the individual's approved child care fees for the week do not include fees that the individual's partner is liable to pay if the base week is also a base week for the individual's partner and the child.

Disregard amounts passed on to reduce fees

- (3) For the purposes of this section, disregard any amount passed on to the individual under section 219B of the Family Assistance Administration Act.

84AC Component of formula—base week

For the purposes of section 84AA, a week is a base week for an individual for a child in a quarter if:

- (a) all or part of the week falls within the quarter; and
- (b) paragraphs 57EA(1)(b) to (e) (as affected by subsections 57EA(2) and (3)) are satisfied for the individual, the child and the week.

- (a) under subsection 65EAA(1); or

- in respect of an individual and a child for a quarter, so long as a determination of entitlement has not been made under Subdivision A in respect of the individual and child for the income year that includes the quarter.
- (2) If:
- (a) an amount of child care tax rebate applicable under this Subdivision in respect of an individual and a child for a quarter has been paid to the individual; and
 - (b) a recalculation under subsection (1) increases the amount of child care tax rebate applicable in respect of the individual and the child for the quarter;

 - (c) the total amount of the individual's approved child care fees for the child worked out under step 1 of the method statement in section 84AA of the Family Assistance Act when calculating the rebate amount; and
 - (d) the total amount (if any) of fee reductions worked out under step 2 of the method statement in section 84AA of the Family Assistance Act when calculating the rebate amount; and
 - (e) if the rebate amount is the result of a recalculation covered by subsection 65EAB(2)—the amount of the increase in rebate as a result of the recalculation; and
 - (f) if the rebate amount is the result of a recalculation covered by subsection 65EAB(3)—the amount of the decrease in rebate as a result of the recalculation, and whether an amount will be set off as described in that subsection.
- (2) The calculation and payment of an amount of child care tax rebate applicable under this Subdivision is not ineffective by reason only that any, or all, of the requirements of subsection (1) are not complied with.
