- (a) on an application for an order under this Act; or
 - (b) ancillary to such an application; or
 - (c) for the enforcement of an order made under this Act.

Admissibility of statements made at examination

- (2) A statement that the absent witness made at an *examination of the absent witness and that tends to establish the matter is admissible in the proceeding as evidence of the matter:
- (a) if it appears to the court that:
 - (i) the absent witness is dead or is unfit, because of physical or mental incapacity, to attend as a witness; or
 - (ii) the absent witness is outside the State or Territory in which the proceeding is being heard and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his or her attendance; or

Rules that apply if statement admitted

- (3) The rules in subsections (4) to (6) apply if evidence of a statement is admitted under subsection (2).

 - (b) any reason the absent witness may have had for concealing or misrepresenting a material matter; and
 - (c) any other circumstances from which it is reasonable to draw an inference about how accurate the statement is.
- (5) If the absent witness is not called as a witness in the proceeding:
- (a) evidence that would, if the absent witness had been so called, have been admissible in the proceeding for the purpose of destroying or supporting his or her credibility is so admissible; and
 - (b) evidence is admissible to show that the statement is inconsistent with another statement that the absent witness has made at any time.
- (6) However, evidence of a matter is not admissible under this section if, had the absent witness been called as a witness in the proceeding and denied the matter in cross-examination, evidence of the matter would not have been admissible if adduced by the cross-examining party.

- (1) A party (the adducing party) to a proceeding referred to in subsection 318A(1) may, not less than 14 days before the first day of the hearing of the proceeding, give another party to the proceeding written notice that the adducing party:

- (a) stating that the other party objects to specified statements being admitted in evidence in the proceeding; and
 - (b) specifying, in relation to each of those statements, the grounds of objection.
- (4) The period referred to in subsection (3) may be extended by the court before which the proceeding is to be heard or by agreement between the parties concerned.

Effect of giving objection notice

- (5) On receiving an objection notice, the adducing party must give to the court a copy of:
- (a) the notice under subsection (1) and any record under subsection (2); and
 - (b) the objection notice.
- (6) If subsection (5) is complied with, the court may either:
- (a) determine the objections as a preliminary point before the hearing of the proceeding begins; or
 - (b) defer determination of the objections until the hearing.

Effect of not giving objection notice

- (7) If a notice has been given in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the other party is not entitled to object at the hearing of the proceeding to a statement specified in the notice being admitted in evidence in the proceeding, unless:
