18 At the end of Part IIIC

Add:

Division 4—Commissioner’s powers to obtain information or documents relating to eligible data breaches*26WU Power to obtain information and documents relating to eligible data breaches

- (1) This section applies if the Commissioner has reason to believe that a person or entity has information or documents, or can answer questions, that are relevant to either or both of the following matters (the relevant matters):
  - (a) an actual or suspected eligible data breach of an entity;
  - (b) an entity’s compliance with the requirements in Division 3 of this Part.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the relevant matters may relate to one or more of the following:
  - (a) whether the entity is required to comply with one or more of those requirements;
  - (b) the conduct or events that led to, or may have led to, the application of one or more of those requirements to the entity;
  - (c) the actions taken by the entity to comply with one or more of those requirements;
  - (d) the actual or suspected eligible data breach that has, or may have, happened;

- (e) the particular kind or kinds of information involved in the actual or suspected eligible data breach;
  - (f) the steps taken to notify individuals affected by the actual or suspected eligible data breach.
- (3) The Commissioner may give to the person or entity a written notice requiring the person or entity:
- (a) to give information of the kind specified in the notice to the Commissioner that relates to the matter; or
  - (b) to produce documents of the kind specified in the notice to the Commissioner that relate to the matter; or
  - (c) answer questions of the kind specified in the notice to the Commissioner that relate to the matter.
- Note: For a failure to give information etc., see section 66.
- (4) A notice given by the Commissioner under subsection (3) must state:
- (a) the place at, or manner in which, the information or document is to be given or produced or the questions are to be answered; and
  - (b) the time at which, or the period within which, the information or document is to be given or produced or the questions are to be answered.
- (5) If documents are produced to the Commissioner in accordance with a requirement under subsection (3), the Commissioner:
- (a) may take possession of, and may make copies of, or take extracts from, the documents; and
  - (b) may retain possession of the documents for any period that is necessary for the purposes of assessing an entity's compliance with this Part; and
  - (c) during that period must permit a person who would be entitled to inspect any one or more of the documents if they were not in the Commissioner's possession to inspect at all reasonable times any of the documents that the person would be so entitled to inspect.
- (6) This section is subject to section 70 but it has effect regardless of any other Commonwealth law.

- (7) A person or entity is not liable to a penalty under the provisions of any other Commonwealth law because the person or entity gives information, produces a document or answers a question when required to do so under this section.

19 Division 3 of Part IV (heading)

Repeal the heading, substitute:

Division 3—Reports and information sharing by Commissioner

20 At the end of Division 3 of Part IV

Add:

33A Commissioner may share information with other authorities

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the Commissioner may share information or documents with a body covered by subsection (2) (a receiving body):
- (a) for the purpose of the Commissioner exercising powers, or performing functions or duties, under this Act; or
  - (b) for the purpose of the receiving body exercising its powers, or performing its functions or duties.
- (2) The following bodies are covered by this subsection:
- (a) an enforcement body;
  - (b) an alternative complaint body;
  - (c) a State or Territory authority, or an authority of the government of a foreign country, that has functions to protect the privacy of individuals (whether or not the authority has other functions).
- (3) The Commissioner may only share information or documents with a receiving body under this section if:
- (a) the information or documents were acquired by the Commissioner in the course of exercising powers, or performing functions or duties, under this Act; and

- (b) the Commissioner is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the receiving body has satisfactory arrangements in place for protecting the information or documents.
- (4) If the Commissioner acquired the information or documents from an agency, the Commissioner may only share the information or documents with a receiving body under this section if the receiving body is an agency.
- (5) If information is shared with a receiving body under this section, the receiving body may use the information only for the purposes for which it was shared.
- (6) To avoid doubt, the Commissioner may share information or documents with a receiving body under this section whether or not the Commissioner is transferring a complaint or part of a complaint to the body.

33B Commissioner may disclose certain information if in the public interest etc.

Information may generally be disclosed if in the public interest

- (1) The Commissioner may disclose information acquired by the Commissioner in the course of exercising powers or performing functions or duties under this Act if the Commissioner is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so.

Public interest considerations

- (2) In determining under subsection (1) whether the Commissioner is satisfied that a disclosure is in the public interest, the Commissioner:
  - (a) must have regard to the following:
    - (i) the rights and interests of any complainant or respondent;
    - (ii) whether the disclosure will, or is likely to, prejudice any investigation the Commissioner is undertaking;
    - (iii) whether the disclosure will, or is likely to, disclose the personal information of any person;

- (iv) whether the disclosure will, or is likely to, disclose any confidential commercial information;
  - (v) whether the Commissioner reasonably believes that the disclosure would be likely to prejudice one or more enforcement related activities conducted by or on behalf of an enforcement body; and
- (b) may have regard to any other matter the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (3) This section does not limit any other powers the Commissioner has to disclose information under this Act or any other law of the Commonwealth.

21 After paragraph 33C(1)(c)

Insert:

- (ca) the ability of an entity subject to Part IIIC to comply with that Part, including the extent to which the entity has processes and procedures in place to:
  - (i) assess suspected eligible data breaches; and
  - (ii) provide notice of eligible data breaches to the Commissioner and to individuals at risk from such breaches;

22 At the end of section 33C

Add:

- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), if the Commissioner has reason to believe that an entity or file number recipient being assessed has information or a document relevant to the assessment the Commissioner may, by written notice, require the entity or file number recipient to give the information or produce the document within the period specified in the notice, which must not be less than 14 days after the notice is given to the entity or file number recipient.

Note: For a failure to give information etc., see section 66.

- (4) The Commissioner must not give a notice under subsection (3) unless the Commissioner is satisfied that it is reasonable in the circumstances to do so, having regard to the following:
- (a) the public interest;

- (b) the impact on the entity or file number recipient of complying with the notice;
  - (c) any other matters that the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (5) An enforcement body is not required to comply with a notice given by the Commissioner under subsection (3) if the chief executive officer of the enforcement body believes on reasonable grounds that compliance with the notice would be likely to prejudice one or more enforcement related activities conducted by or on behalf of the enforcement body.
- (6) Subsection (3) is subject to section 70 but it has effect regardless of any other Commonwealth law.
- (7) A person or entity is not liable to a penalty under the provisions of any other Commonwealth law because the person or entity gives information or produces a document when required to do so under subsection (3).
- (8) The Commissioner may publish information relating to an assessment on the Commissioner's website.

23 At the end of subsection 44(1)

Add:

Note: For a failure to give information etc., see section 66.

24 At the end of subsection 46(4)

Add:

Note: For a failure to give information etc., see section 66.
