Product Grants and Benefits Ruling

Energy grants: off-road credits for forestry

Product Grants and Benefits Ruling PGBR 2005/1 is withdrawn with effect from today.

1. This Ruling explains the off-road credit entitlements for forestry under the Energy Grants (Credits) Scheme Act 2003 (EGCS Act) (repealed). In particular, the Ruling explains:

- forestry as an aspect of primary production
- the meaning of each of the activities in the definition of 'forestry' in section 35, and
- the effect of the exclusion in subsection 53(2) of diesel fuel purchased for use in propelling a road vehicle on a public road, including:
  - the definition of a 'road vehicle', and
  - the definition of a 'public road'.

2. This Ruling is withdrawn and ceased to have effect on 1 July 2012, the date of repeal of the EGCS Act (repealed).

3. This Ruling continues to apply, in respect of the EGCS Act (repealed), to all taxpayers within the specified class who purchased or imported into Australia off-road diesel fuel for use in forestry as defined in Subdivision C of Division 3 of the EGCS Act (repealed) in the period the Act was in force; being 1 July 2003 up to and including 30 June 2012.
