7.9.44A Meaning of *inactive

In this Subdivision, a member of a regulated superannuation fund has an account that is inactive in relation to a choice product or a MySuper product for a period if the member has an account that is inactive in relation to the product for the period within the meaning of subsection 68AAA(3) of the SIS Act.

7.9.44B Notices about insurance—inactivity

- (1) This regulation is made for the purposes of paragraph 1017DA(1)(a) of the Act.

Application

- (2) This regulation applies if:
- (a) a member of a regulated superannuation fund holds a choice product or a MySuper product offered by the fund; and
  - (b) the fund provides a benefit to, or in respect of, the member under the product by taking out or maintaining insurance; and
  - (c) the member has not made an election, under subsection 68AAA(2) of the SIS Act, that the benefit will be provided to, or in respect of, the member under the product by taking out or maintaining insurance even if the member's account is inactive in relation to the product for a continuous period of 16 months; and
  - (d) if under the governing rules of the fund the benefit will not be provided to, or in respect of, the member under the product by taking out or maintaining insurance if the member's account is inactive for a period of less than 16 months—the member has not made an election under the governing rules of the fund that the benefit will be provided in that way even if the member's account is inactive in relation to the product for that lesser period.
- (3) However, this regulation does not apply in relation to:
- (a) a defined benefit member; or
  - (b) an ADF Super member (within the meaning of the Australian Defence Force Superannuation Act 2015); or

- (a) the member's account has been continuously inactive in relation to the product under which the benefit is provided for a period and, were the member's account to continue to be inactive in relation to the product for a further period of 7 months, the fund would cease to provide the benefit by taking out or maintaining insurance either under the governing rules of the fund or because of the application of section 68AAA of the SIS Act;
  - (b) the member's account has been continuously inactive in relation to the product under which the benefit is provided for a period and, were the member's account to continue to be inactive in relation to the product for a further period of 4 months, the fund would cease to provide the benefit by taking out or maintaining insurance either under the governing rules of the fund or because of the application of section 68AAA of the SIS Act;
  - (c) the member's account has been continuously inactive in relation to the product under which the benefit is provided for a period and, were the member's account to continue to be inactive in relation to the product for a further period of 1 month, the fund would cease to provide the benefit by taking out or maintaining insurance either under the governing rules of the fund or because of the application of section 68AAA of the SIS Act.

Time for giving notice

- (6) If a trustee of a regulated superannuation fund is required under subregulation (4) to ensure that a member of the fund is given a notice in relation to a benefit provided to the member under a product offered by the fund, the notice must be given:

    - (i) the member has made an election, under subsection 68AAA(2) of the SIS Act, that the benefit will be provided to, or in respect of, the member under the product by taking out or maintaining insurance even if the member's account is inactive in relation to the product for a continuous period of 16 months; or
    - (ii) if under the governing rules of the fund the benefit will not be provided to, or in respect of, the member under the product by taking out or maintaining insurance if the member's account is inactive for a period of less than 16 months—the member has made an election under the governing rules of the fund that the benefit will be provided in that way even if the member's account is inactive in relation to the product for that lesser period.
