Taxation Determination

Income tax: are childcare expenses paid by a person for that person's children deductible under subsection 51(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936?

1. No. Subsection 51(1) permits deductions for losses and outgoings incurred in gaining or producing assessable income except where they are capital, private or domestic in nature.
2. The High Court held in Lodge v FC of T (1972) 128 CLR 171; 72 ATC 4174; 46 ALJR 575; 3 ATR 254; that child care expenditure was neither relevant nor incidental to gaining or producing assessable income, and therefore not deductible. The expenditure was also of a private or domestic nature.
3. This view has been consistently affirmed in later court decisions, most recently by the Full Federal Court in 1991 in Jayatilake v FC of T 91 ATC 4516; 22ATR 125; 101 ALR 11;.
4. The same principle applies whether the expenses are paid to a registered organisation or to any other person for this purpose.
5. In this context childcare expenditure includes fees paid, travel expenses, cost of child's lunch etc.,
